

The background of the cover is a photograph of a desert at dusk or dawn. The foreground is filled with golden sand dunes, their ridges creating a rhythmic pattern. In the upper half, a large, dark, swirling cloud formation is visible against a deep blue sky. Within this cloud, a bright, glowing figure appears to be dancing or moving, with a long, white, comet-like trail extending from its base towards the horizon. The overall mood is spiritual and serene.

Robinson,2016-03-18 All through scripture the people of God have found true freedom in a journey through the desert It is a simple trajectory the exodus the exile the forty days the cross This book aims to lead you down the lost seam of gold that is desert spirituality in the Bible The desert makes a powerful spiritual impact on those who go there It encourages us to realize that we know who we really are only when we have nothing Nothing is when we sense God s presence in the awesome stars and skies Nothing is the stunning silence of the sand dunes as it welcomes the dawning in our mind that God is real and God is good Nothing is what we have in fierce places and dry times But looking around the wealthy churches of the western world we hang on to what we ve got for fear that God has no more to give We seek rational controls over the Spirit of God Faith has become more about words than love No wonder we are thirsty We desperately need to recover a dimension of our faith that has been left out If you are tired of the dogmatic pathways of religion or if you have departed the church for fear of shriveling this book will steer you back to the best of biblical spirituality That is what was in mind when Moses spoke Deuteronomy in the desert the same place where Jesus caught wind of it This spirituality grounds us Jesus our role model and source our presence and promise is making us an offer If we grasp this it could open up a resource of strength and simplicity in this challenging twenty first century Given the number of biblical heroes whose faith and dependence on God were honed in the white heat of the desert to those who have ears to hear this book offers an eloquent challenge deliberately to seek deeper spiritual transformation in dry places and not always be satisfied with a focus on verdant pastures and flowing streams whether in our churches or elsewhere Dr Andrew D Clarke Senior Lecturer in New Testament University of Aberdeen Scotland For many years I have been journeying with Ian in the deserts of Australia His reflections have provided me with a fresh language and joy in exploring the landscape of my soul As Ian says the desert is the spiritual director however his biblical knowledge of desert spirituality has deepened my experience and the richness of the blessings I have received out there Susan Kaldor Counsellor Leadership Consultant Spiritual Director Fellow traveller I commend readers to Ian Robinson s book and hope that many who experience the spiritual aridity of urban existence can find the water of life in the desert places of the heart David Tacey Professor of Humanities La Trobe University Melbourne Ian Robinson was the first to cross all of Australia s deserts in one journey It was deeply transforming for all involved Since then he has led hundreds on desert retreats called Spirit Journeys and has researched written and spoken in many church and community settings Ian is the Uniting Church Chaplain at the University of Western Australia is married to Margaret with three adult children He has an MA from Oxford University and a PhD from Charles Sturt University

our lives can become like a wilderness Grief bereavement loss of hope testing anger rejection and pain all play their part But God loves to come alongside us during such times to transform our desert experience and renew our joy This 40 day devotional journeys into the desert areas of our lives and into God's wonderful promises and love No matter what you are going through there is hope God desires to bring renewal into the dry barren areas of our lives and turn around that which presently seems irresolvable He is the God of the impossible and is able to turn our wasteland into a fertile pasture with the foundational truths of His love and the promises of His care and help Are you thirsty Thirst is a primal need We cannot survive physically without water and when we feel thirsty the relief we experience from drinking is profound In the same way God can quench our inner thirst which goes deeper than our physical need We thirst for meaning in life for fulfilment love beauty hope truth and ultimately God Himself Only God can truly satisfy our longing Through this book learn how to engage more deeply with God especially during the wilderness times and understand that He is always with you longing to bring you relief from suffering and refreshment for your soul What others are saying There is a quiet power to these meditations like a thunderstorm on mute I sense a Voice rumbling through the gentle words Listen for that Voice it offers joy in the midst of life's trials SHERIDAN VOYSEY Tracy has one of the most beautiful and intimate relationships with the Lord of anyone I have ever met so I can highly recommend this devotional I've watched her survive many desert experiences herself so she definitely knows what she's talking about JENNIFER REES LARCOMBE Tracy invites us to sit a while and hear the assurances of the God who holds us in our wilderness times as well as in easier times the rich words and reflections on Scripture in this devotional will be a blessing to the weak and weary LIZ CARTER
