Dancing With Virgins:

Dante's Performance Francesco Ciabattini, 2024-08-06 Through an historical and philological lens this book explores passages from Dante's Commedia which reveal elements inspired by processions pageants liturgical drama psalm singing or dance performance The sacred poem finds influence in medieval theories of the performing arts as well as actual performances which Dante would have seen in churches or town squares Dante's Performance opens a new perspective from which to consider the Commedia Dante expected his contemporary readers to recognize references to and echoes of psalms sacred plays and performative practices Twenty first century readers are tasked with reconstructing a cultural framework which allows us to grasp those same textual references From the dramatization of the harrowing of hell in Inferno IX to Beatrice's celebratory return on top of Mount Purgatory to the songs of the blessed this study connects Dante's language to coeval theoretical and practical texts about performance If hell is the Middle Age's theatrum diaboli purgatory stages a performed purification through songs and acting while paradise offers the spectacle of blessed spirits within the heavenly spheres as an aid to human understanding Par IV 28-39 The Long Fifteenth Century Helen Cooper, Sally Mapstone, 1997 The Long Fifteenth Century is intended as a companion volume to Douglas Gray's ground breaking Oxford Book of Late Medieval Verse and Prose and incorporates a bibliography of his published writings Gray's anthology revolutionized critical appreciation of English and Scottish literature of the long fifteenth century from the death of Chaucer to the Reformation but the literature of the period as a whole remains much under read undervalued and under studied The contributors to this volume all leading scholars in the field bring to the fore the power of underrated writers restore to the period writings often attributed to other centuries open up new possibilities in neglected genres offer radical rereadings of some more familiar works and demonstrate how closely the literature of the period is bound up with political and social conditions Written in honour of Douglas Gray to mark his long and distinguished tenure of the J R R Tolkien Professorship of English Literature and Language at Oxford university the 15 essays in this volume portray the long fifteenth century as a major period of literature in its own right They provide a comprehensive survey of fifteenth century literature in print from the morality play to the ballad verse forms to prose romances including Chaucer Lydgate Skelton and Hoccleve along with essays on the Middle French Poets and Scottish writings of the period Music and Faith Jonathan Arnold, 2019 How do contemporary audiences engage with sacred music and what are its effects This book explores examples of how the Christian story is still expressed in music and how it is received by those who experience that art form whether in church or not Through conversations with a variety of writers artists scientists historians atheists church laity and clergy the term post secular emerges as an accurate description of the relationship between faith religion spirituality agnosticism and atheism in the west today In this context faith does not just mean belief as the book demonstrates the temporal linear relational and communal process of experiencing faith is closely related to music Music and Faith is centred on those who by and large are not professional musicians philosophers or theologians but who find that music and faith are bound up with each other and with their own lives Very often as the conversations reveal the results of this binding are transformative whether it be in outpourings of artistic expression of another kind or greater involvement with issues of social justice or becoming ordained to serve within the Church Even those who do not have a Christian faith find that sacred music has a transformative effect on the mind and the body and even to use a word deliberately employed by Richard Dawkins the soul JONATHAN ARNOLD is Dean of Divinity and Fellow of Magdalen College Oxford Before being ordained he was a professional singer and made numerous recordings with The Sixteen Polyphony the Gabrielli Consort and The Tallis Scholars among others He has previously published Sacred Music in Secular Society 2014 The Great Humanists An Introduction 2011 and John Colet of St Paul s Humanism and Reform in Pre Reformation England 2007

Dance as Third Space

Heike Walz,2021-12-06 Dance plays an important role in many religious traditions in rites of passage processions healing rituals or festivals But it is also controversial especially in Christianity Colonial European Christian discourses tend to separate dance from religion s and spirituality This volume explores dance as Third Space following Homi Bhabha s postcolonial metaphor The Inter Dance approach combines interdisciplinary theoretical considerations with case studies International experts examine dance controversies and discourses from the early church to World Christianity as well as in Hasidic Judaism Greek mysteries Islamic Sufism West African Togolese religions and Afro Brazilian Umbanda Christian dance theologies are unfolded and the boundary crossing potential of dance in interreligious and intercultural encounters is explored The volume breaks new ground in how dance as ephemeral performative art embodied thought and gendered discourse can transform studies of religion

Ringleaders of Redemption Kathryn Dickason,2021 In popular thought Christianity is often figured as being opposed to dance Throughout the medieval era the Latin Church denounced and prohibited dancing often aligning it with demonic intervention lust pride and sacrilege However Ringleaders of Redemption reveals how the historical sources including biblical commentaries sermons saints lives ecclesiastical statutes mystical treatises vernacular literature and iconography from France Italy Germany England Spain and beyond tell a different story During the High and Late Middle Ages Western theologians liturgists and mystics not only tolerated dance they transformed it into a dynamic component of religious thought and practice

In the Country of Dreaming Caravans Gerard Houarner,2022-08-27 Once and now a little girl who plays with ghosts and spirits is lost in the desert No family no friends just memories of an old life in a world of cities and cars and a head full of visions and dreams that don t belong in the world She likes to tell stories She stinks of camel Once she will say The scorpion was not always a creature of pain just as each of us was not always what we have become Many times she wonders what she is worth to the living who sell her buy and steal her to the spirits and ghosts and djinn and ghuls she plays with to the Caravan of the Dead she comes to belong to to the dead who wake her and are awakened by her Once and now she wonders what others are willing to pay for her stories A redemptive story of the saving magic of story itself Lose yourself and find yourself in the tale of Aini a virgin storyteller cast adrift by selfish parents to the whims of the desert to make her way in the world maybe all the way to the Caravan of Dreams In this short novel Houarner has crafted a fantastic beautifully dark journey to the center of the secret heart John Everson Bram Stoker Award winning author of Covenant and NightWhere Houarner always a maestro of the smart horror tale further hones his art in this scary provocative nod to The Thousand and One Nights and other ancient traditions of phantasmal story telling Chock full the macabre and populated by the arabesque horrors of a culture far older than ours this great new work by Houarner is a Must Read for all venturers into weird fiction Edward Lee author of White Trash Gothic and City Infernal

Dancing with the Virgin Deidre Sklar, 2001 Deidre Sklar went to Tortugas New Mexico where an annual three day fiesta honors the Virgin of Guadalupe in order to seek answers to her questions about community performance and the embodiment of belief How do we know what we know Where do we belong and how do we fit in Sklar's own background and learned values form the conscious constantly challenged raw material for the undertaking and the intimate language of the body and sensation is her medium Her ten year study and movement analysis of the sacred dances and the backstage work involved in the festival take her deep into the life of the community as dancer participant observer and self interrogating woman merge in a vividly narrated experience of communal sacred time *The Chances of Death, and Other Studies in Evolution: Woman as witch.
