Dangerous Democracy News Media Politics In New Zealand:

Dangerous Democracy Judy McGregor, 1996 The centrality of the news media to contemporary politics demands that performance of political journalism in New Zealand is scrutinized and its function vigorously debated The SAGE Handbook of Political Advertising Lynda Lee Kaid, Christina Holtz-Bacha, 2006-06-14 The SAGE Handbook of Political Advertising provides a comprehensive view of the role political advertising plays in democracies around the world Editors Lynda Lee Kaid and Christina Holtz Bacha along with an international group of contributors examine the differences as well as the similarities of political advertising in established and evolving democratic governments Key Features Offers an international perspective This Handbook examines the political television advertising process that has evolved in democracies around the world including countries in Asia Europe Australia Africa Latin America and North America In addition a comparative overview addresses the effects of political advertising on the voters and the systems of which it is a part Provides comprehensive coverage For each country presented an analysis is given of its political advertising history its cultural implications the political and regulatory systems related to political advertising the effects of media system structures and the effects of new technologies Includes examples from recent elections The role specific candidate or party controlled television plays in a specific region s electoral process is examined Original research on recent elections confirms the expanding significance of this form of political communication This is an excellent resource for media professionals and practicing journalists as well as a welcome addition to any academic library It can also be used as a textbook for advanced undergraduate and graduate courses on Political Advertising in the fields of Political Science Communication Broadcasting Journalism and International Relations The New Zealand Experiment Jane Kelsey, 2015-12-21 Jane Kelsey s was a questioning and challenging voice when she wrote this passionate critique of New Zealand s economic policies in the 1980s and 90s The social and economic consequences of a decade of market based reforms are laid bare in this statistically rich and rhetorically powerful work Drawing on a wide array of sources Kelsey s analysis delves into every aspect of the structural reforms that were to have such vast consequences for New Zealand society Her analysis of those policies and their consequences gains a fresh and sobering perspective in the light of the recent global financial crisis Trust Ownership and the Future of News Gavin Ellis, 2014-06-29 Crumbling business models mean news media structures must change Gavin Ellis explores the past and present use of newspaper trusts drawing on case studies such as the Guardian the Irish Times and the Pulitzer Prize winning Tampa Bay Times to make the case for a form of ownership dedicated to sustaining high quality journalism The Routledge Companion to Media & Gender Cynthia Carter, Linda Steiner, Lisa McLaughlin, 2013-12-13 The Routledge Companion to Media and Gender offers a comprehensive examination of media and gender studies charting its histories investigating ongoing controversies and assessing future trends The 59 chapters in this volume written by leading researchers from around the world provide scholars and students with an engaging and authoritative survey of current thinking in media and gender research The Companion includes the following features With each chapter addressing a distinct concrete set of issues the volume includes research from around the world to engage readers in a broad array of global and transnational issues and intersectional perspectives Authors address a series of important questions that have consequences for current and future thinking in the field including postfeminism sexual violence masculinity media industries queer identities video games digital policy media activism sexualization docusoaps teen drama cosmetic surgery media Islamophobia sport telenovelas news audiences pornography and social and mobile media A range of academic disciplines inform exploration of key issues around production and policymaking representation audience engagement and the place of gender in media studies The Routledge Companion to Media and Gender is an essential guide to the central ideas concepts and debates currently shaping media and gender research

New Zealand Journal of Psychology, 2003 Maori and Aboriginal Women in the Public Eye Karen Fox, 2011-12-01 From 1950 increasing numbers of Aboriginal and M ori women became nationally or internationally renowned Few reached the heights of international fame accorded Evonne Goolagong or Dame Kiri Te Kanawa and few remained household names for any length of time But their growing numbers and visibility reflected the dramatic social cultural and political changes taking place in Australia and New Zealand in the second half of the twentieth century This book is the first in depth study of media portrayals of well known Indigenous women in Australia and New Zealand including Goolagong Te Kanawa Oodgeroo Noonuccal and Dame Whina Cooper The power of the media in shaping the lives of individuals and communities for good or ill is widely acknowledged In these pages Karen Fox examines an especially fascinating and revealing aspect of the media and its history how prominent M ori and Aboriginal women were depicted for the readers of popular media in the past Publisher s description

Reform Geoffrey Palmer, 2013-11 Politician and law professor Geoffrey Palmer recounts the events and forces that shaped him in this memoir as well as his many adventures in reforming a wide range of institutions laws and policies Reform has been a recurring theme throughout Geoffrey Palmer s life not only during his career in politics and as a Prime Minister but also as a law professor and law practitioner He speaks of his early life and family background and the eventful lives of his pioneering ancestors He examines the intellectual influences on his thinking particularly the nature of his education both in New Zealand and the United States and chronicles his life according to the issues accident compensation the Constitution the Bill of Rights the Law Commission liquor law Maori issues parliamentary reform the Resource Management Act law and order prisons and local government reform Meticulously detailed and engagingly written Reform is essential reading for anyone interested in New Zealand legal and political history

Ms. Prime Minister Linda Trimble, 2018-01-18 Ms Prime Minister offers both solace and words of caution for women politicians After closely analyzing the media coverage of former Canadian Prime Minister Kim Campbell two former Prime Ministers of New Zealand Jenny Shipley and Helen Clark and Australia s 27th Prime Minister Julia Gillard Linda Trimble concludes that reporting both reinforces and contests unfair gender norms

News about female leaders gives undue attention to their gender identities bodies and family lives Yet equivalent men are also treated to evaluations of their gendered personas And as Trimble finds some media accounts expose sexism and authenticate women s performances of leadership Ms Prime Minister provides important insight into the news frameworks that work to deny or confer political legitimacy It concludes with advice designed to inform the gender strategies of women who aspire to political leadership roles and the reporting techniques of the journalists who cover them Political

Leadership in New Zealand Raymond Miller, Michael Mintrom, 2006 A comprehensive up to date analysis of the role and influence of political leadership in New Zealand Political Leadership in New Zealand discusses this topical issue from a variety of valuable perspectives More than simple studies of various leaders chapters cover leadership and national identity leadership in response to globalisation leadership in New Zealand foreign policy the populist tradition of leadership how to adapt traditional adversarial leadership styles to MMP Maori conceptions of political chieftainship emerging leadership of new immigrant groups and the role of the media in reflecting and controlling the public views of leaders Portraits of the minor party leaders such as Winston Peters Jim Anderton and Peter Dunne are included as is a fascinating comparison between the leadership styles of Helen Clark and Don Brash Leadership is now a subject of growing interest especially since the advent of MMP and this innovative new book interrogates the theory the practice and the personalities of political leaders in producing emotive gut responses and intense loyalty from their followers Contributors Margie Comrie Tania Domett Seishi Gomibuchi Barry Gustafson John Henderson Manying Ip Elizabeth McLeay Raymond Miller Michael Mintrom Matthew Palmer Jacqui True Ranginui Walker and Luke Williams Foreword by high profile leadership expert Lester Levy Political

Communication Philip M. Seib, 2008 Political Science, 2008 Historical & Political Dictionary of New Zealand Keith Jackson, Alan McRobie, 2008 This new retitled and expanded New Zealand edition is a substantially revised edition of the Historical Dictionary of New Zealand published in the United States in 2005 It describes the many changes of the past decade while building on the solid foundations of the earlier editions that examined the country s long and lively history It covers a wide range of topics from relations between the Pakeha and the Maori to the country s recent economic changes and environmental policies The introduction provides a good starting point and the chronology traces New Zealand s history from the earliest settlers to the present The dictionary includes hundreds of entries on important people places events and institutions as well as significant political economic social and cultural aspects and a bibliography for further reading

World Press Encyclopedia Amanda C. Quick, 2003 This comprehensive survey of press and electronic media now covers nearly 200 countries Arranged alphabetically by country entries begin with an overview of the background economic framework and general characteristics of each country s press Entries then cover the number and type of media press laws censorship issues state press relations news agencies electronic news media education and training in journalism and much more Bridled Power Geoffrey W. R. Palmer, Matthew Palmer, 1997 Since the late 1980s there have been major changes to New Zealand's constitution. In areas such as freedom of information and parliamentary reform, the changes have been fundamental. There has recently been a rapid growth in Treaty of Waitangi jurisprudence. Reforms have also been heralded with the enactment of the Constitution Act and the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act. This work provides a comprehensive explanation of these shifts in the New Zealand constitution and considers how the system of government will operate in the age of MMP.

New Zealand Books in Print, 1999 Politics in New Zealand R. G. Mulgan, 1997. This book was first published in 1994 and has been extensively revised to reflect political developments since then, particularly MMP. It is intended as an introductory text for undergraduate students and covers the main political institutions, key concepts, and academic controversies and general theories of the state. The author is a well-known political scientist. Lists of suggested reading, a bibliography, and an index are provided. Soft cover.
