Burnham, Architect, Planner of Cities Charles Moore,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1921 edition Excerpt Orderliness is one of the best investments a city can make but the appeal of the Chicago Plan is by no means entirely a commercial appeal It is a human appeal a moral appeal an appeal to make Chicago better not for the money that is in it but for the sake of the higher mental moral and physical people that a perfectly arranged city will produce The Plan of Chicago is not a panacea for all the civic ills that beset our city It aims simply at the physical development of Chicago for the good of not one class of people or of one section of the city but for the good of all Chicagoans for the good of all Chicago No other city of modern times has been given a plan so comprehensive one that proposes so many economic hygienic sociological commercial and humanitarian benefits and one so thoroughly calculated to meet the needs of a vast and growing populace The ten years work of the Chicago Plan Commission upon the Plan has been an effort to assist Chicago to fulfil its ambition to be the best most orderly healthful convenient and attractive city in America 1 CHAPTER XXIV THE COMMISSION OF FINE ARTS THE LONDON CITY PLANNING CONFERENCE 1910 THEODORE ROOSEVELT in his Autobiography says I also appointed a Fine Arts Council an unpaid body of the best architects painters and sculptors in the country to advise the Government as to the erection and decoration of all new buildings The pork barrel Senators and Congressmen felt for this body an instinctive and perhaps from their standpoint a natural hostility and my successor a couple of months after taking office revoked the appointment and disbanded the Council This statement in so far as it relates to President Taft is ambiguous In the Sundry Civil Act of March Daniel H. Burnham, Architect, Planner of Cities Thomas Adams,1923 Daniel H. Burnham, Vol. 1 Charles Moore,2016-06-14 Excerpt from Daniel H Burnham Vol 1 Architect Planner of Cities The celebration of the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus the World s Columbian Exposition at Chicago in 1893 caused our architects and landscape architects our sculptors and our painters to work together for the first time The spiritual result of that cooperation has been a feeling for public service awakened then among the artists themselves The eminent material result was a group of buildings not only of individual dignity and beauty but also expressing that higher beauty which results from harmony in style arrangement and landscape setting About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Daniel H.
