Daniel Libeskind Daniel Libeskind,1992      Daniel Libeskind; countersign,1991      Daniel Libeskind Daniel Libeskind,1991 Om arkitekten Daniel Libeskind f dt 1946      Responding to Loss Robert Mugerauer,2014-10-15 Much recent philosophical work proposes to illuminate dilemmas of human existence with reference to the arts and culture often to the point of submitting particular works to preconceived formulations In this examination of three texts that respond to loss Robert Mugerauer responds with close detailed readings that seek to clarify the particularity of the intense force such works bring forth Mugerauer shows how in the face of what is irrevocably taken away as well as of what continues to be given the unavoidable task of interpretation is ours alone Mugerauer examines works in three different forms that powerfully call on us to respond to loss Cormac McCarthy s The Crossing Daniel Libeskind s Jewish Museum Berlin and Wim Wenders s film Wings of Desire Explicating these difficult but rich works with reference to the thought of Martin Heidegger Jean Luc Marion Hannah Arendt and Emmanuel Levinas the author helps us to experience the multiple and diverse ways in which all of us are opened to the saturated phenomena of loss violence witnessing and responsibility      Makers of 20th-century Modern Architecture Donald Leslie Johnson,Donald Langmead,1997 Makers of 20th Century Modern Architecture is an indispensable reference book for the scholar student architect or layman interested in the architects who initiated developed or advanced modern architecture The book is amply illustrated and features the most prominent and influential people in 20th century modernist architecture including Wright Eisenman Mies van der Rohe and Kahn It describes the milieu in which they practiced their art and directs readers to information on the life and creative activities of these founding architects and their disciples The profiles of individual architects include critical analysis of their major buildings and projects Each profile is completed by a comprehensive bibliography      Mapping in Architectural Discourse Marc Schoonderbeek,2021-11-29 This book explores the notion of mapping in architectural discourse First locating positioning and theorizing mapping it then makes explicit the relationship between research and design in architecture through cartography and spatial analysis It proposes three distinct modalities tool operation and concept showing how these methods lead to discursive aspects of architectural work and highlighting mapping as an instrument in developing architectural form It emphasizes the importance of place and time as fundamental terms with which to understand the role of mapping An investigation into architectural discourse this book will appeal to academics and researchers within the discipline with a particular interest in theory history and cartography      Mountains and Megastructures Martin Beattie,Christos Kakalis,Matthew Ozga-Lawn,2020-12-21 This book explores the shared qualities of mountains as naturally formed landscapes and of megastructures as manmade landscapes seeking to unravel how each can be understood as an open system of complex network relationships human natural and artificial By looking at mountains and megastructures in an interchangeable way the book negotiates the fixed boundaries of natural and artificial worlds to suggest a more complex relationship between landscape and architecture It suggests an ecological understanding of the interconnectedness of architecture and landscape and an entangled network of relations Urban colonialist fictional rural and historical landscapes are interwoven into this fabric that also involves discontinuities tensions and conflicts as parts of a system that is never linear but rather fluid and organic as driven by human endeavor Daniel Libeskind Bernhard Schneider,1999 Scarcely any other contemporary building has been the focus of so much attention and heated discussion as the Jewish Museum in Berlin This guide to the museum s architecture sheds light on its symbolism as well as on the philosophy behind it The historic and social significance of this museum extends far beyond the bounds of the city Its already famous zigzag structure challenges the very way we regard architecture Daniel

Libeskind, Radix-Matrix Daniel Libeskind,Andrea P. A. Belloli,1997 Daniel Libeskind represents a unique attempt to provide a comprehensive critical analysis of Libeskind s architecture and philosophy Libeskind serves as the mediator of his own work exploring various projects through an illuminating juxtaposition of textual commentary with illustrations of competition models concept drawings and site photos of realized works Essays by Jacques Derrida and Mark C Taylor among others provide a critical analysis of Libeskind s architecture identifying his place within the context of contemporary architecture and theory The book concludes with a collection of Libeskind s most important essays many of which are published here in English for the first time Theories and Manifestoes of Contemporary Architecture Charles Jencks,Karl Kropf,1997-08-05 This essential compendium presents more than 150 key arguments by major architectural philosophers and gurus of today and outlines the numerous developments that have taken place in this field since the 1950s Each of the statements is accompanied by a short biography of the architect and an extract from their principal texts drawn from a variety of sources Museum Builders II Laura Hourston,Laura Hourston Hanks,2004-03-05 The popularity of the museum has dramatically increased in recent years and many modern examples have been built around the world This book catalogues these developments and beautifully presents an exciting selection of the most inspiring examples of contemporary museums around the world The book that first launched the successful Builders series was Museum Builders in 1994 and since this time there has been an explosion in museum building by some of the world s most famous architects Instead of trying to update the first edition Wiley Academy has produced a completely new and updated volume Following a historical and contemporary assessment of the role of the museum the author presents in great photographic detail the most famous examples of modern museums around the world Includes work by Frank Gehry Rem Koolhaas Daniel Libeskind Zaha Hadid Jean Nouvel and others Architecture in Europe Since 1968 Alexander Tzonis,Liane Lefaivre,1992 A comprehensive survey of architectural projects during a time of great ferment from the student movements and political upheaval of 1968 to the official unification of Europe in 1992 Following an extensive introductory essay by the authors four invited essays address the major issues of the period urban context and change typology technology ecology Some 75 individual projects are then presented each accompanied by a critical essay together with photographs drawings site diagrams and construction details
