Daniel Libeskind The Jewish Museum Berlin Between The Lines:

Daniel Libeskind Bernhard Schneider, 1999 Scarcely any other contemporary building has been the focus of so much attention and heated discussion as the Jewish Museum in Berlin This guide to the museum s architecture sheds light on its symbolism as well as on the philosophy behind it The historic and social significance of this museum extends far beyond the bounds of the city Its already famous zigzag structure challenges the very way we regard architecture Jewish Museum

Daniel Libeskind, 2011 Designed in the second half of the 90s the Jewish Museum in Berlin opened in September 2011 The modern architectural elements of the Libeskind building comprise the zinc fa ade described as An irrational and invisible matrix the Garden of Exile which attempts to completely disorient the visitor and represents a shipwreck of history the three Axes of the German Jewish experience and the Voids which refer to that which can never be exhibited when it comes to Jewish Berlin history Humanity reduced to ashes Together these pieces form a visual and spatial language rich with history and symbolism In the words of the architect The official name of the project is Jewish Museum but I have named it Between the Lines because for me it is about two lines of thinking organization and relationship One is a straight line but broken into many fragments the other is a tortuous line but continuing indefinitely In some way Libeskind imagines the continuation of both lines throughout the city of Berlin and beyond Daniel Libeskind : Between the lines Rolf Bothe, Vivian

Constantinopoulos, Renée Waale, 1991 Visual Culture and the Holocaust Barbie Zelizer, 2001 A book that looks at both the traditional and the unconventional ways in which the holocaust has been visually represented The purpose of this volume is to enhance our understanding of the visual representation of the Holocaust in films television photographs art and museum installations and cultural artifacts and to examine the ways in which these have shaped our consciousness The areas covered include the Eichman Trial as covered on American television the impact of Schindler s List the Jewish Museum in Berlin the Israeli Heritage Museums Women and Holocaust Photography Interne Architecture and Modernity Hilde

Heynen, 2000-02-28 Bridges the gap between the history and theory of twentieth century architecture and cultural theories of modernity In this exploration of the relationship between modernity dwelling and architecture Hilde Heynen attempts to bridge the gap between the discourse of the modern movement and cultural theories of modernity On one hand she discusses architecture from the perspective of critical theory and on the other she modifies positions within critical theory by linking them with architecture She assesses architecture as a cultural field that structures daily life and that embodies major contradictions inherent in modernity arguing that architecture nonetheless has a certain capacity to adopt a critical stance vis vis modernity Besides presenting a theoretical discussion of the relation between architecture modernity and dwelling the book provides architectural students with an introduction to the discourse of critical theory The subchapters on Walter Benjamin Ernst Bloch Theodor Adorno and the Venice School Tafuri Dal Co Cacciari can be studied independently for this purpose Between the Lines Daniel Libeskind, 1991 Disciplining the Holocaust Karyn Ball, 2008-10-22 Disciplining

the Holocaust examines critics efforts to defend a rigorous and morally appropriate image of the Holocaust Rather than limiting herself to polemics about the proper approach to traumatic history Karyn Ball explores recent trends in intellectual history that govern a contemporary ethics of scholarship about the Holocaust She examines the scholarly reception of Goldhagen s Hitler s Willing Executioners the debates culminating in Eisenman s Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe in Berlin Lyotard s response to negations of testimony about the gas chambers psychoanalytically informed frameworks for the critical study of traumatic history and a conference on feminist approaches to the Holocaust and genocide Ball s book bridges the gap between psychoanalysis and Foucault s understanding of disciplinary power in order to highlight the social implications of traumatic history

Memory Matters Caroline Schaumann, 2008-08-27 Memory Matters juxtaposes in tripartite structure texts by a child of German bystanders Wolf an Austrian Jewish child survivor Kl ger a daughter of Jewish migr s Honigmann a daughter of an officer involved in the German resistance Bruhns a granddaughter of a baptized Polish Jew Maron and a granddaughter of German refugees from East Prussia D ckers Placed outside of the distorting victim perpetrator Jewish German man woman and war postwar binary it becomes visible that the texts neither complete nor contradict each other but respond to one another by means of inspiration reverberation refraction incongruity and ambiguity Focusing on genealogies of women the book delineates a different cultural memory than the counting of male inflected generations and a male dominated Holocaust and postwar literature canon It examines intergenerational conflicts and the negotiation of memories against the backdrop of a complicated mother daughter relationship that follows unpredictable patterns and provokes both discord and empathy Schaumann s approach questions the assumption that German gentile and German Jewish postwar experiences are necessarily diametrically opposed i e respond to a negative symbiosis and uncovers intersections and continuities in addition to conflicts
