Men, Masculinity and Contemporary Dating Chris Haywood, 2018-05-02 At a time when traditional dating practices are being replaced with new ways to meet potential partners this book provides fresh insights into how men are responding to new ways of dating Drawing upon original research this book examines a wide range of contemporary dating practices that includes speed dating holiday romances use of dating apps online sex seeking and dogging It reveals the ways in which men draw upon traditional models of masculinity to negotiate these changes but also the extent to which men are responding by elaborating new masculinities Through an investigation of the dynamics of heterosexuality and masculinity this book highlights the importance attached to authenticity and the increasing marketization and commodification of dating It argues that in a post truth world men must also come to terms with a post trust dating landscape Combining rich empirical material with keen theoretical analysis this innovative work will have interdisciplinary appeal for students and scholars of sociology media studies cultural studies and gender studies

A Filtered Life Nicole Taylor, Mimi Nichter, 2021-12-23 A Filtered Life is the first comprehensive ethnographic account to explore how college students create and manage multiple identities on social media Drawing on interviews and digital ethnographic data gleaned from popular social media platforms the authors document and make visible routinized practices that are typically hidden and operating behind the scenes They introduce the concept of digital multiples wherein students strategically present themselves differently across social media platforms This requires both the copious production of content and the calculated development of an instantly recognizable aesthetic or brand Taylor and Nichter examine key contradictions that emerged from student narratives including presenting a self that is both authentic and highly edited appearing upbeat even during emotionally difficult times and exuding body positivity even when frustrated with how you look

Students struggled with this series of impossibilities yet they felt compelled to maintain a vibrant online presence With its close up portrayal of the social and embodied experiences of college students A Filtered Life is ideal for students and scholars interested in youth studies digital ethnography communication and new forms of media Fashion Communication in the Digital Age Paula von Wachenfeldt, Lorenzo Cantoni, Nadzeya Sabatini, Teresa Sádaba, 2025-11-18 This open access book presents papers from the fourth bi annual FACTUM Fashion Communication Conference a leading reference event in the field of fashion communication As one of the few academic gatherings of its kind worldwide the conference explores fashion communication from diverse perspectives The proceedings feature contributions from scholars specializing in communication and marketing management digital transformation cultural heritage and other related disciplines These proceedings aim to foster interdisciplinary theoretical and empirical research on the impact of communication practices on both the fashion industry and societal fashion related values and behaviors Specifically they seek to establish and strengthen an international interdisciplinary network of scholars in the field of fashion communication share innovative methodological approaches expand the dialogue between communication studies and fashion related disciplines and encourage junior researchers to pursue their academic interests in this dynamic field Additionally this book serves as a valuable resource for professionals in fashion communication and marketing providing access to rigorous research in a rapidly evolving domain driven by digital transformation
