The Content Makers Margaret Simons,2007-09-03 In The Content Makers Margaret Simons explains the changes taking place in the Australian media She analyses audiences our major media organisations the role of government and the implications of all of these for our society and our democracy Her examination leads her to the conclusion that the challenges facing the content providers in the modern world are part of a broader striving a very old struggle we might call it the search for meaning The big media businesses may or may not survive into the future but content certainly will because we need it and have always needed it The Content Makers delivers a visceral understanding of how modern media works gives a plain language explanation of new media and provides straightforward information on recent changes to ownership legislation and what they mean But most importantly it suggests a vision for the future a new way of looking at the role of the content makers and how they and their audiences might find new hope and purpose in the future

Writing and Producing Television News Alan Schroeder, 2009 Writing and Producing Television News From Newsroom to Air is a step by step guide to the nuts and bolts of writing and producing television journalism Schroeder presents two goals first to familiarize students with the basic challenges and skills faced by television news professionals and second to put these principles into practice through realistic exercises and assignments that puts students into the role of decision makers This comprehensive text employs a running case study throughout the text Schroeder has created the fictional town of Lakedale a medium size news market not unlike the sort of places a young professional might have their first job Many of the exercises are set there and the text stresses the many decisions news journalists must make on a daily basis and stresses problem solving throughout Each topic area is complemented by assignments designed to closely approximate the work of professional television journalists These exercises cover a wide spectrum of material from breaking news to features and they introduce a range of story formats from simple anchor readers and voiceovers to such complex structures as sound bite stories and news packages The text also draws on the insights and experiences of a select group of dedicated professionals who represent the best of TV news in local stations across the country reporters anchors producers assignment editors web journalists graphic artists and newsroom executives
