Digital-Native News and the Remaking of Latin American Mainstream and Alternative Journalism Summer Harlow, 2022-10-06 Winner of the Frank Luther Mott Kappa Tau Alpha Research Award Digital Native News and the Remaking of Latin American Mainstream and Alternative Journalism explores the rise of independent digital native news outlets in Latin America and their role in social change protest participation and the refinement of the concept of alternative media Drawing upon a decade of original research including interviews surveys focus groups and content analyses this book questions how the emergence of online native news sites in Latin America is redefining our understanding of what it means to be mainstream and what it means to be alternative By analyzing a wide range of elements from business models and audience behaviors to social media use and the role of gender this text examines how these sites are challenging traditional hegemonic mainstream news media and its service to political and economic elites The result is a discerning investigation into the new brand of journalism these sites have innovated This insightful study will be of interest to journalism communication and Latin American scholars particularly those interested in how technology is moulding journalistic practices and changing conceptions of journalism itself

Advertising in America Danielle Sarver Coombs, 2024-06-27 This book provides an accessible resource for understanding the world behind the advertising jingles and Super Bowl commercials and digital algorithms Advertising has become a ubiquitous force in American life penetrating almost every aspect of our daily routines Additionally as technology has evolved throughout American history so too has advertising proliferated as media has become increasingly sophisticated and ever present whether it takes the form of algorithms governing your social media feed television commercials paid influencers or stadiums branded with the names of corporate sponsors owners This authoritative one stop resource provides a rich overview of the evolution and present state of advertising in all its forms as well as the multitude of connected issues data collection privacy consumerism technology and others regarding advertising and its role as both a shaper and reflector of American culture It surveys various advertising media discusses the social and cultural contexts in which it is consumed and highlights key moments in the history of advertising in the United States In addition the book is supplemented with carefully curated primary sources personal essays a glossary of advertising terms and other resources to provide readers with a full picture of advertising as both an industry and a shaper of American culture

Society, Ethics, and the Law: A Reader David A. Mackey, Kathryn M. Elvey, 2020-02-06 Society Ethics and the Law A Reader is an engaging thoughtful and academic text designed to help students make connections to ethical issues using real world examples and thought provoking discussion questions Comprised of 57 original articles topics range from traditional philosophical based academic articles to conversational style narratives of practitioners experiences with ethical issues within the criminal justice system Content spans areas of criminal justice from traditional police courts and corrections to popular culture rap social media and technology to timely immigration gun control and mental health Authored by real world experts Character in Context sections illustrate how ethics impacts daily life These include among others Jim Obergefell s perspective on society ethics and the law as it relates to his experience as plaintiff in the Supreme Court Case Obergefell V Hodges the case that legalized gay marriage      Perfect Copies Shiamin

Kwa,2023-01-13 Analyzing the way that recent works of graphic narrative use the comics form to engage with the problem of reproduction Shiamin Kwa s Perfect Copies reminds us that the mode of production and the manner in which we perceive comics are often quite similar to the stories they tell Perfect Copies considers the dual notions of reproduction mechanical as well as biological and explores how comics are works of reproduction that embed questions about the nature of reproduction itself Through close readings of the comics My Favorite Thing Is Monsters by Emil Ferris The Black Project by Gareth Brookes The Generous Bosom series by Conor Stechschulte Sabrina by Nick Drnaso and Panther by Brecht Evens Perfect Copies shows how these comics makers push the limits of different ideas of reproduction in strikingly different ways Kwa suggests that reading and thinking about books like these that push us to engage with these complicated questions teaches us how to become better readers      Virtual Victorians Veronica Alfano,Andrew Stauffer,2016-01-18 Exploring how scholars use digital resources to reconstruct the 19th century this volume probes key issues in the intersection of digital humanities and history Part I examines the potential of online research tools for literary scholarship while Part II outlines a prehistory of digital virtuality by exploring specific Victorian cultural forms      Telling Science Stories Martin W.
