Engaging Characters Murray Smith, 2022 In Engaging Characters Smith sets out a comprehensive analysis of character exploring the role of characters in our experience of film and media This revised 25th anniversary edition refines and extends the arguments of the first edition reappraising the debates on emotion empathy and film spectatorship that the book has inspired

The World and Its Double Chris Fujiwara, 2025-06-25 Otto Preminger was one of Hollywood's first truly independent producer-directors He sought to address the major social, political and historical questions of his time in films designed to appeal to a wide public Blazing a trail in the examination of controversial issues such as drug addiction The Man with the Golden Arm and homosexuality Advise and Consent and in the frank sophisticated treatment of adult material Anatomy of a Murder Preminger in the process broke the censorship of the Hollywood Production Code and the blacklist He also made some of Hollywood's most enduring film noir classics including Laura and Fallen Angel An Austrian migrant Preminger began his Hollywood career in 1936 as a contract director When the conditions emerged that led to the fall of the studio system he had the insight to perceive them clearly and the boldness to take advantage of them turning himself into one of America's most powerful filmmakers More than anyone else Preminger represented the transition from the Hollywood of the studios to the decentralized wheeling and dealing New Hollywood of today Chris Fujiwara's critical biography the first in more than thirty years follows Preminger throughout his varied career penetrating his carefully constructed public persona and revealing the many layers of his work

Joan Crawford Lawrence J. Quirk, William Schoell, 2002-09-30 Based on new interviews this fresh portrayal of an American film legend retraces her steps from her beginnings in silent films in the 1920s through her Oscar-winning performance in Mildred Pierce and subsequent decline Biography

Joan Crawford in Film Noir David Meuel, 2024-02-27 Joan Crawford's contribution to film noir during the 1940s and 1950s though rarely discussed in its totality is one of her most impressive and far-reaching career achievements Several of her noir and noir-tinged efforts contain arguably her best acting work and all bear her personal stamp These aren't conventional film noirs they are Joan Crawford noirs highly distinctive films that extended the boundaries of noir content and brought added depth and dimension to the noir style Unlike most actors who routinely adapted to the needs of particular film projects and directors she approached each film first and foremost as a Joan Crawford vehicle often exerting great control over multiple production functions and at times operating as a de facto producer Examining these films as a collective and relatively cohesive body of work this book highlights what Crawford aspired to achieve in her art how when the circumstances were right she could deliver superb results how she helped expand the possibilities for noir and why the best of her efforts speak across the decades with such intensity and authority
