ReVisioning James Romaine, Linda Stratford, 2014-05-20 ReVisioning Critical Methods of Seeing Christianity in the History of Art examines the application of art historical methods to the history of Christianity and art As methods of art history have become more interdisciplinary there has been a notable emergence of discussions of religion in art history as well as related fields such as visual culture and theology This book represents the first critical examination of scholarly methodologies applied to the study of Christian subjects themes and contexts in art ReVisioning contains original work from a range of scholars each of whom has addressed the question in regard to a well known work of art or body of work How have particular methods of art history been applied and with what effect The study moves from the third century to the present providing extensive treatment and analysis of art historical methods applied to the history of Christianity and art

The Color of Being/El Color del Ser Susie Kalil, 2016-09-02 Born in Bryan Texas and raised in Houston Dorothy Hood won a scholarship to the Rhode Island School of Design in the early 1930s then worked as a model in New York to earn money for classes at the Art Students League On a whim she drove a roadster to Mexico City with friends in 1941 and ended up staying for more than twenty years Hood was front and center at the cultural political and social crossroads of Mexico and Latin America during a period of intense creative ferment She developed close friendships with the exiled European intelligentsia and Latin American surrealists artists composers poets playwrights and revolutionary writers She married the Bolivian composer Jos Mar a Velasco Maidana and together they traveled all over the world Once back in Houston Hood produced epic paintings that evoked the psychic void of space large scale works evoking primordial seas volcanic explosions and the cosmos contained within the mind The Color of Being El Color del Ser establishes a vital connection among Texas Latin America New York and Europe It celebrates this important Modernist painter whose oeuvre is integral to the ongoing dialogue of abstraction by artists of the postwar period Sponsored by the Art Museum of South Texas Color Line

Equations Jack Roth, Thomas McCormick, 2011 The Other Side of Color David C. Driskell, 2001 This volume presents selections from the highly respected Cosby collection of African American art Their introductions elaborate on their strong belief that African American families should themselves seek to preserve their cultural history and not rely on the mainstream They also provide interesting background about how they began their collection and what owning the art has meant to them The essay by Driskell curator author and scholar places each artist within the context of his or her era from the late 1700s to the present and explores the historical biographical social and political background of each period Also contains biographies of the artists Beautifully illustrated with 91 color plates and several other illustrations Oversize 10 25x13 25 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
