Damien Hirst, Gordon Burn

Damien Hirst The Saatchi Gallery:

Damien Hirst Jonathan Barnbrook, 2001-04-01 Reputed to have initiated the young British art movement Hirst is considered the pre eminent artist of his generation This project brings together for the first time all his works in the collection of Charles Saatchi his most prolific and proactive patron History of the Saatchi Gallery, 2011-07-01 Over the years The Saatchi Gallery has launched the careers of many young artists who have since become household names For the first time one book The History of the Saatchi Gallery chronicles the breadth of work exhibited at the Saatchi Gallery from Lucien Freud to Damien Hirst Andy Warhol to Cy Twombly and Richard Serra to name but a few The Elusive Truth Jason Beard, 2008-05-01 This large format book illustrates the complete paintings featured in Damien Hirst's recent New York exhibition The Elusive Truth The book includes full colour reproductions on hand tipped in plates a raised plastic cover displaying the painting Two Pills 2004 a characteristically disturbing short story entitled The Intensive Care Unit by acclaimed writer J G Ballard and die cut windows that highlight details from the paintings Damien Hirst has written quotes to accompany each painting throughout the catalogue Damien Hirst's art takes on numerous forms He tackles the big subjects of love desire life and death and creates unavoidable sculptures and paintings that contain irony wit and wisdom while questioning art's role in contemporary culture The Elusive Truth Hirst's recent exhibition of new work signals an exciting new direction in his work Hardback with embossed printed plastic tip in on cover 22 die cuts and 31 tipped in plates

Nothing Matters: Signed Edition Damien Hirst, 2010-02-01 White Cube was pleased to present nineteen new paintings by Damien Hirst The exhibition was staged at White Cube Mason's Yard and White Cube Hoxton Square At White Cube Hoxton Square Hirst presented a group of paintings which included three triptychs from 2007-09 each depicting crows shot in mid flight against blue skies with outspread wings and violent splatters of red paint across their bodies In the four triptychs on show in the lower ground floor at White Cube Mason's Yard these crows reappear as omens of bad news They often share the space with ghost like figures skeletal forms and objects including chairs lemons knives animal skulls wine glasses or a scorpion Supercollector Rita Hatton, John Albert Walker, 2000 A detailed examination of the advertising mogul and art collector Charles Saatchi a man who is estimated to spend £2 million a year buying contemporary art displaying it in his own gallery in north London and famously at the Sensation exhibition which opened at the Royal Academy before touring to Berlin and the Brooklyn Museum an event that provoked an extraordinary clash between art and politics Regarded by many as a modern Medici Saatchi exercises tremendous power in the international contemporary art market He can make and break artists reputations and he has had the power to define the character and direction of recent British art Surprisingly this is the first book to look at Charles Saatchi as art collector While it quotes a range of opinions the book is primarily a critique written from a socialist standpoint applying ideas derived from a number of sociologists including Marx Moulin and Veblen Museum Theory Andrea Witcomb, Kylie Message, 2020-11-19 MUSEUM THEORY EDITED BY ANDREA

WITCOMB AND KYLIE MESSAGE Museum Theory offers critical perspectives drawn from a broad range of disciplinary and intellectual traditions This volume describes and challenges previous ways of understanding museums and their relationship to society Essays written by scholars from museology and other disciplines address theoretical reflexivity in the museum exploring the contextual theoretical and pragmatic ways museums work are understood and are experienced Organized around three themes Thinking about Museums Disciplines and Politics and Theory from Practice Practicing Theory the text includes discussion and analysis of different kinds of museums from various primarily contemporary national and local contexts Essays consider subjects including the nature of museums as institutions and their role in the public sphere cutting edge museum practice and their connections with current global concerns and the links between museum studies and disciplines such as cultural studies anthropology and history

What Is Contemporary Art? Terry E. Smith, 2009-10-15 Who gets to say what counts as contemporary art Artists critics curators gallerists auctioneers collectors or the public Revealing how all of these groups have shaped today's multifaceted definition Terry Smith brilliantly shows that an historical approach offers the best answer to the question What is Contemporary Art Smith argues that the most recognizable kind is characterized by a return to mainstream modernism in the work of such artists as Richard Serra and Gerhard Richter as well as the retro sensationalism of figures like Damien Hirst and Takashi Murakami At the same time Smith reveals postcolonial artists are engaged in a different kind of practice one that builds on local concerns and tackles questions of identity history and globalization A younger generation embodies yet a third approach to contemporaneity by investigating time place mediation and ethics through small scale closely connective art making Inviting readers into these diverse yet overlapping art worlds Smith offers a behind the scenes introduction to the institutions the personalities the biennials and of course the works that together are defining the contemporary The resulting map of where art is now illuminates not only where it has been but also where it is going

Damien Hirst Ann Gallagher, 2012-10 Published on the occasion of the exhibition Damien Hirst Tate Modern 4 April 9 September 2012

Romance in the Age of Uncertainty Jason Beard, 2008-05-01 Romance in the Age of Uncertainty was the first solo exhibition of new work by Damien Hirst in London since he exhibited Still at White Cube Duke Street in 1995 This extensive exhibition of new sculptures and paintings collectively examined dissected and recast the story of Jesus and the Disciples Through these new religious works Hirst explored the uncertainty at the heart of human experience the confusing relations between love life and death communion and isolation loyalty and betrayal And in so doing Hirst brings into play religion art and science layering these categories together opening them up in works that tell new and different stories The Saatchi Gallery 100, 2004 Art that was headbuttingly impossible to ignore is how Charles Saatchi describes the work that intrigued him as he started to collect British art in the early 1990s Damien Hirst's giant shark in formaldehyde Tracey Emin's unmade bed and a chilling portrait of Myra Hindley by Marcus Harvey are among the artworks that have since become icons of the decade The Saatchi Gallery now in the former County Hall in London is a permanent home for a changing selection of Saatchi's world famous collection Ron Mueck, Ron Mueck, Heiner Bastian, 2003 Mueck's human figures are always technically perfect absolutely realistic deliberately undersized or oversized He first models them in clay and then takes a hollow cast of which he fills with silicone or fibreglass This catalogue of his work accompanies an exhibition in Berlin in 2003 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4 Volume Set Sharon Macdonald, Helen Rees Leahy, 2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work that represents a state of the art survey of the burgeoning field of museum studies Featuring original essays by leading international museum experts and emerging scholars readings cover all aspects of museum theory practice debates and the impact of technologies The four volumes in the series divided thematically offer in depth treatment of all major issues relating to museum theory historical and contemporary museum practice mediations in art design and architecture and the transformations and challenges confronting the museum In addition to invaluable surveys of current scholarship the entries include a rich and diverse panoply of examples and original case studies to illuminate the various perspectives Unprecedented for its in depth topic coverage and breadth of scholarship the multi volume International Handbooks of Museum Studies is an indispensable resource for the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society High Art Lite Julian Stallabrass, 1999 High Art Lite takes a cool and critical look at the way in which British art in the 1990s has reinvented itself successfully appealing both to the mass media and to the elite art world In this extensively illustrated polemic Julian Stallabrass asks whether it has done so at the price of dumbing down and selling out 18 color and 53 b w photographs Damien Hirst Damien Hirst, 2013-10-15 An alphabet book illustrated by the artwork of Damien Hirst Contemporary Art in Print Charles Booth-Clibborn, 2006 On the Way to Work Damien Hirst, Gordon Burn, 2002 An extremely candid autobiography of Hirst presented in a series of conversations with the British writer Gordon Burn intimate conversations are punctuated with art from all phases of his career chosen by Hirst himself Shark Infested Waters Sarah Kent, 2004-01-03 Charles Saatchi's collection of young British artists is one of the most celebrated collections of contemporary art in the world But is it art was a frequent cry during the mid 90s when he exhibited the works of artists such as Damien Hirst Marc Quinn Gavin Turk and Marcus Harvey Artists such as these soon fulfilled their promise and consolidated their reputations vindicating Saatchi's enthusiasm and their inclusion in this eclectic group

The book explores the ideas aspirations and attitudes that inform each artist and the way that they are manifested in the end product This publication long out of print remains an essential record of 35 artists that were collected by Charles Saatchi during the 1990s and is being reprinted to celebrate the opening of the new Saatchi Gallery later this year The book explores the ideas aspirations and attitudes that inform each artist and the way that they are manifested in the end product This publication long out of print remains an essential record of 35 artists that were collected by Charles Saatchi during the 1990s and is being reprinted to celebrate the opening of the new Saatchi Gallery later this year Art today makes approaches towards the unknowable artists reflect something both psychological and social off that gaze something that may hint at the face the future will present In this activity artist and critic are linked in an intimate collaboration The artist makes unverifiable hypotheses or intuitive proposals about the unknown and the critic drives out into the verbal open their networks of implications Thomas McEvilley Father the void in Tyne International a new necessity 1990 p 133 The name of this book is derived from Damien Hirst s extraordinary sculpture The Physical Impossibility of Death in the Mind of Someone Living 1992 a fourteen foot tiger shark suspended in a tank of formaldehyde It is appropriate that Hirst should introduce this anthology since he was responsible for making visible many of the artists included in these pages and in many people s minds has come to epitomize the wild boy whose shock tactics and cool media manner give art a high profile and a bad name His presence emphatically colours the 20water In 1988 while still a student at Goldsmiths Hirst organized Freeze an exhibition that included sixteen of his fellow students This marked the beginning of a vital period of optimism and enthusiasm The recession provided a plentiful supply of empty factories warehouses and offices and young artists seized the initiative raised funds and mounted further shows such as Modern Medicine and Gambler in these dramatic spaces Charles Saatchi had been collecting their work and bought Hirst s first major piece A Thousand Years with its rotting cow s head and flies Support of this kind is of incalculable value it sustains energy and optimism Whereas struggling in a vacuum is soul destroying the prospect of having one s work enter a major collection provides both a goal and a context it generates hope Damien Hirst s shark swam into view in the first show of Young British Artists mounted at the Saatchi Gallery in 1992 and attracted unprecedented media attention At first sight there seem to be few links between the thirty five artists represented in this book What possible preoccupations could be shared by a minimalist painter and a pickler of sharks In writing about them the author was determined not to impose artificial groupings Despite their work being lumped together under the rubric of conceptualism often by those hostile to it these artists do not form a group or a school Many of them studied at Goldsmiths and some are friends but others have never met or even heard of one another Kerry Stewart graduated only recently Jenny Saville lives in Scotland Carina Weidle has returned to Brazil and although most of the others live in London it is a big city There is no cafe society or artists meeting place and these people do not form a cosy coterie Hirst-isms Damien Hirst,2022-10-18 A revealing collection of quotations from world renowned artist Damien Hirst Hirst isms is a collection of quotations bold surprising often humorous and always insightful from celebrated artist Damien Hirst whose controversial work explores the connections between art religion science life and death Emerging in the 1990s as a leading member of the Young British Artists YBAs Hirst first became famous and gained a reputation as a provocateur with a series of artworks featuring dead and sometimes dissected animals including a shark sheep and cow preserved in glass tanks filled with formaldehyde Gathered from interviews and other primary sources and organized by subject these quotations explore Hirst's early years family life and the beginnings of his fascination with art the major themes of his work his influences and heroes his motivation his process and the boundary pushing production of his work and his thoughts on the art world fame and money The result is a comprehensive and nuanced book that sheds new light on a fascinating and important contemporary artist Select quotations from the book The less I feel like an artist the better I feel I like it when people love my art I like it when people hate my art I just don't want them to ignore my art Painting's like the most fabulous illusion because there's nothing at stake Except yourself I'm interested in the confusion between art and life I like it when the world gets in the way Sometimes you have to step over the edge to know where it is
