Dance In Cyberspace:

Cinderella's Cyber Slippers F.G. Cardin, Ella's life is a digital nightmare Stuck working for her demanding stepmother and two vapid stepsisters her only escape is coding and her anonymous online gaming community When a virtual reality gala hosted by the enigmatic Prince Charming of the gaming world is announced Ella secretly creates the perfect avatar and logs in But when a glitch causes her to lose her connection at midnight she leaves behind only a single unique digital slipper Can the Prince track down the mysterious gamer who stole his heart Cinderella's Cyber Slippers is a charming and hilarious modern twist on a classic fairytale perfect for anyone who's ever dreamed of finding love in the digital age Digital Performance Steve Dixon, 2007-02-23 The historical roots key practitioners and artistic theoretical and technological trends in the incorporation of new media into the performing arts The past decade has seen an extraordinarily intense period of experimentation with computer technology within the performing arts Digital media has been increasingly incorporated into live theater and dance and new forms of interactive performance have emerged in participatory installations on CD ROM and on the Web In Digital Performance Steve Dixon traces the evolution of these practices presents detailed accounts of key practitioners and performances and analyzes the theoretical artistic and technological contexts of this form of new media art Dixon finds precursors to today's digital performances in past forms of theatrical technology that range from the deus ex machina of classical Greek drama to Wagner's Gesamtkunstwerk concept of the total artwork and draws parallels between contemporary work and the theories and practices of Constructivism Dada Surrealism Expressionism Futurism and multimedia pioneers of the twentieth century For a theoretical perspective on digital performance Dixon draws on the work of Philip Auslander Walter Benjamin Roland Barthes Jean Baudrillard and others To document and analyze contemporary digital performance practice Dixon considers changes in the representation of the body space and time He considers virtual bodies avatars and digital doubles as well as performances by artists including Stelarc Robert Lepage Merce Cunningham Laurie Anderson Blast Theory and Eduardo Kac He investigates new media's novel approaches to creating theatrical spectacle including virtual reality and robot performance work telematic performances in which remote locations are linked in real time Webcams and online drama communities and considers the extratemporal illusion created by some technological theater works Finally he defines categories of interactivity from navigational to participatory and collaborative Dixon challenges dominant theoretical approaches to digital performance including what he calls postmodernism's denial of the new and offers a series of boldly original arguments in their place Résumés in Cyberspace Pat Criscito, 2000 Updated to help job seekers take full advantage of the latest cyberspace trends and technology this book provides detailed instruction on designing a resume for computer networking Readers will learn to make their resume attention catching scannable and effective in helping them get that job they're seeking They'll also find advice on using the World Wide Web and a variety of commercial on line services to find and land career positions Dance Now, 1995 Tango and Related Dances Tom

Nelson,2009 Regarding the Tango Dance Amalgamation it includes the original Argentine Tango and its Genre which Musically featured its Bandonean sound the American Tango Continental Tango and the International Tango among others This book is the story of Tango The African American Experience In Cyberspace Gerald A. McWorter,Abdul Alkalimat,2004 The World Wide Web is the greatest information resource used by students and teachers media and library professionals as well as the general public However it s often difficult to identify the best and most reliable web sites This easy to use guide is an indispensable handbook for anyone searching the web for information on Black Studies Multiculturalism and the African American Experience There is no search engine that can match the quality of resources to be found in this book Divided into clear chapters the guide highlights the best links and web sites covering every aspect of African American history society and culture Each chapter has a brief essay an extensive annotation on the five best sites for each topic and then a group of good sites and a short bibliography Ideal for students at high school or college level The African American Experience in Cyberspace should also be kept near every home computer used to surf the web for Black content Book jacket To Dance is Human Judith Lynne Hanna,1987-09-15 Exploring dance from the rural villages of Africa to the stages of Lincoln Center Judith Lynne Hanna shows that it is as human to dance as it is to learn to build or to fight Dance is human thought and feeling expressed through the body it is at once organized physical movement language and a system of rules appropriate in different social situations Hanna offers a theory of dance drawing on work in anthropology semiotics sociology communications folklore political science religion and psychology as well as the visual and performing arts A new preface provides commentary on recent developments in dance research and an updated bibliography
