Zubko,2014-08-07 Dancing Bodies of Devotion Fluid Gestures in Bharata Natyam examines how Bharata Natyam a traditionally Hindu storytelling dance form moves across religious boundaries through both incorporating choreography on Buddhist Christian Muslim and Jain themes and the pluralistic identities of participants Dancers traverse religious boundaries by reformulating an aesthetic foundation based on performative rather than solely textual understandings of rasa conventionally defined as a formula for how to physically craft emotion on stage Through the ethnographic case studies of this volume dancers of Bharata Natyam innovatively demonstrate how the rasa of devotion bhakti rasa surprisingly absent from classic dance related texts serves as the pivotal framework for expanding on their own interreligious thematic and interpretive possibilities In contemporary Bharata Natyam bhakti rasa is not just about enhancing religious experience instead these dancers choreographically adapt various religious identities and ideas in order to emphasize pluralistic cultural and ethical dimensions in their work Through the dancing body multiple religious and secular interpretations fluidly co exist Dancing in the Dark Muriel Pollock,1923 Automobile Topics ,1909 Follette, and Other Stories ,1881 Dancers and Choreographers Leslie Getz,1995 Covers the full range of English language dance book literature published in the twentieth century as well as all the scholarly periodicals in the field from the United States Great Britain Canada and Australia The Dancing Hours Harold Ohlson,1916 Symbolic and legendary dramas: Schluck und Jau.
