Dancing The Beguine:

Dancing the Beguine Gary E. Mullins,2000-04 This lifetime I m dancing in a new direction counterclockwise My turn as the whirling dervishes say has taken me down strange and bewildering paths With my first spin I survived the tension of growing up in a dysfunctional American family I always felt unsettled and out of place After several emotionally difficult years in college I abruptly quit Within days I was hitchhiking from Atlanta to San Francisco For no apparent reason the morning after my arrival I walked five miles to the top of Nob Hill As an elderly lady was about to cross the street she dropped a package I picked it up and we started a conversation I had no idea this woman was the Murshida teacher of a Sufi Order and one of the closest Western followers of Avatar Meher Baba My spiritual search was over and yet my unwinding dance had just begun In India a year later I met Meher Baba my spiritual master Since then my life s dance has never been the same The stories which I ve written recall many dance partners especially heartrending romances as well as my uncanny and bizarre experiences Dancing the Beguine A Memoir of Unwinding Romance a down to earth and breathtaking dance of love celebrates my unwinding my romance with God It offers a fresh and sometimes painful glimpse into the issues of practical mysticism reincarnation marriage and spiritual development Ultimately Dancing is about a lifelong search for love and its eventual discovery In a literary format this memoir appeals to a diverse audience 101 Dance Ideas age 5-11
