public understanding of the civil rights icon revealing her to be a radical and committed activist The Rebellious Life of Mrs Rosa Parks is the definitive political biography of Parks examining her six decades of activism and challenging passive perceptions of her contributions in the civil rights movement Including a new introduction titled Nine Ways to Be Like Rosa Parks in the Age of Black Lives Matter public historian Jeanne Theoharis provides vital insight into her life and activism She not only reveals Parks's personal financial and political struggles but also highlights the danger of the quiet seamstress narrative especially in an age where civil rights activism can be weaponized against those working for change Presenting a powerful corrective to the popular iconography of Rosa Parks Theoharis excavates her political philosophy and six decades of activism By detailing the political depth of a national heroine who dedicated her life to fighting inequality Theoharis resurrects a civil rights movement radical who has been hidden in plain sight far too long further showing how Parks and others helped pave the way for future activist organizations

Theatre in Dublin 1745-1820: A Calendar of Performances is the first comprehensive daily compendium of more than 18,000 performances that took place in Dublin's many professional theatres, music halls, pleasure gardens, and circus amphitheatres between Thomas Sheridan's becoming the manager at Smock Alley Theatre in 1745 and the dissolution of the Crow Street Theatre in 1820 The daily performance calendar for each of the seventy-five seasons recorded here records and organizes all surviving documentary evidence pertinent to each evening's entertainments derived from all known sources but especially from playbills and newspaper advertisements Each theatre's daily entry includes all preludes, mainpieces, interludes, and afterpieces with casts and assigned roles followed by singing and singers, dancing and dancers, and specialty entertainments Financial data, program changes, rehearsal notices, authorship, and premiere information are included in each component's entry as is the text of contemporary correspondence and editorial contextualization and commentary followed by other additional commentary such as the many hundreds of printed puffs, notices, and performance reviews In the cases of the programs of music halls, pleasure gardens, and circuses the playbills have generally been transcribed verbatim The calendar for each season is preceded by an analytical headnote that presents several categories of information including among other things an alphabetical listing of all members of each company whether actors, musicians, specialty artists, or house servants who are known to have been employed at each venue Limited biographical commentary is included particularly about performers of Irish origin who had significant stage careers but who did not perform in London Each headnote presents the season's offerings of entertainments of each theatrical type: prelude, mainpiece, interlude, afterpiece, analyzed according to genre including a list of the number of plays in each genre and according to period in which they were first performed The headnote also notes the number of different plays by Shakespeare staged during each season and gives particular attention to entertainments of special Irish interest The various kinds of benefit performance and command performances are also noted Finally this Calendar of Performances contains an appendix that furnishes a season-by-season listing of the plays that
