undercover in the play's wardrobe department At first Hughes's determination to keep the production running seems admirable but his motives are soon called into question as Prudence hears whispers backstage about his notorious predatory behavior with young women And when another body turns up at the theatre it's clear that someone is targeting the play and its company but why Prudence and Geoffrey must improvise as they tread into an unfamiliar world where deceit is cultivated for entertainment and deception is celebrated as talent to expose a darkness lurking behind the glittering stage lights

Gilded Lily Isabel Vincent, 2010-06-16 A riveting account of the life of the international socialite and billionaire's Lily Safra a fascinating life a very good read Dominick Dunne Vanity Fair reporter and expert on the Safra case In the early morning of December three 1999 Lily Safra stood shivering in her nightgown on the grounds outside her sumptuous Monte Carlo penthouse where just hours before her fourth husband reclusive billionaire Edmond Safra died in a fire An American nurse employed by the Safra family was eventually convicted of the arson death Overnight Lily became one of the wealthiest widows in the world The Brazilian born Lily Safra was no stranger to tragedy In 1969 her second husband the Brazilian multimillionaire Alfredo Monteverde died from two gunshots to the chest The Brazilian authorities ruled it a suicide In 1989 her beloved eldest son and four year old grandson died in a car accident But just who is Lily Safra Despite having become a fixture in society columns for her generous charity work and lavish parties the elegant and enigmatic widow has remained in the background Gilded Lily tells Lily Safra's story for the first time Using archival sources court documents and interviews with childhood friends and former employees in South America investigative journalist Isabel Vincent chronicles Safra's rise from humble origins in Brazil to fabled wealth in London New York and Monaco A compelling biography that reads like fiction Washington Times A skillfully executed expos Journalist Vincent delves fearlessly into the messy lucky upwardly mobile climb of four time married Lily Safra nee Watkins Great reporting Publishers Weekly Books in Print ,1981

The Masks of Mary Renault Caroline Zilboorg,2013-10-10 Born Eileen Mary Challans in London in 1905 Mary Renault wrote six successful contemporary novels before turning to the historical fiction about ancient Greece for which she is best known While Renault s novels are still highly regarded her life and work have never been completely examined Caroline Zilboorg seeks to remedy this in The Masks of Mary Renault by exploring Renault s identity as a gifted writer and a sexual woman in a society in which neither of these identities was clear or easy Although Renault s life was anything but ordinary this fact has often been obscured by her writing The daughter of a doctor she grew up comfortably and attended a boarding school in Bristol She received a degree in English from St Hugh s College in Oxford in 1928 but she chose not to pursue an academic career Instead she decided to attend the Radcliffe Infirmary in Oxford where she trained to be a nurse With the outbreak of the Second World War she was assigned to the Winford Emergency Hospital in Bristol and briefly worked with Dunkirk evacuees She went on to work in the Radcliffe Infirmary s brain surgery ward and was there until 1945 It was during her nurse s training that Renault met Julie Mullard who became her lifelong companion This important lesbian relationship both resolved and posed many problems for Renault not the least of which was how she was to write about issues at once intensely personal and socially challenging In 1939 Renault published her first novel under a pseudonym in order to mask her identity It was a time when she was struggling not only with her vocation nursing and writing but also with her sexual identity in the social and moral context of English life during the war In 1948 Renault left England with Mullard for South Africa and never returned It was in South Africa that she made the shift from her early contemporary novels of manners to the mature historical novels of Hellenic life The classical settings allowed Renault to mask material too explosive to deal with directly while simultaneously giving her an academic freedom to write about subjects vital to her among them war peace career women s roles female and male homosexuality and bisexuality Renault s reception complicates an understanding of her achievement for she has a special status within the academic community where she is both widely read and little written about Her interest in sexuality and specifically in homosexuality and bisexuality in fluid gender roles and identities warrants a rereading and reevaluation of her work Eloquently written and extensively researched The Masks of Mary Renault will be of special value to anyone interested in women s studies or English literature The Little Dog Laughed Fergus
