Dangerous Pursuits Nicholas Salaman, 1984 Temporalities and Subjectivities in Migration Literature in Europe Jopi Nyman, Johan Schimanski, Carmen Zamorano Llena, 2024-09-23 Temporalities and Subjectivities in Migration Literature in Europe examines migrant stories through the lens of temporality as seen in the role of such issues as integration waiting detention trauma crisis and imagined futures This book argues that a focus on different time scales and perceptions of time will help us understand how the intimate and affective subjectivities of more complex narratives of migration as articulated in literature cross into the public sphere and challenge political bubbles This collection showcases new approaches to and innovative readings of different forms of literary and cultural migration narratives In addition to developing theoretical tools for the study the authors present innovative case studies addressing topics such as the European refugee crisis migration narratives and border crossings in Britain Spain and Morocco as well as experiences of migration in Finland and Norway

The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature Gigi Adair, Rebecca Fasselt, Carly McLaughlin, 2024-07-30 The Routledge Companion to Migration Literature offers a comprehensive survey of an increasingly important field It demonstrates the influence of the age of migration on literature and showcases the role of literature in shaping socio political debates and creating knowledge about the migratory trajectories lives and experiences that have shaped the post 1989 world The contributors examine a broad range of literary texts and critical approaches that cover the spectrum between voluntary and forced migration In doing so they reflect the shift in recent years from the author centric study of migrant writing to a more inclusive conception of migration literature The book contains sections on key terms and critical approaches in the field important genres of migration literature a range of forms and trajectories of migration with a particular focus on the global South and on migration literature's relevance in social contexts outside the academy Its range of scholarly voices on literature from different geographical contexts and in different languages is central to its call for and contribution to a pluriversal turn in literary migration studies in future scholarship This Companion will be of particular interest to scholars working on contemporary migration literature and it also offers an introduction to new students and scholars from other fields Chapter 15 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana, 2013-09-07 The novel is a largely imported European genre coming relatively late to the history of Arab letters It should therefore perhaps come as no surprise that the first novel to have been written by an Arab was written in English Ameen Rihani's The Book of Khalid 1911 However subsequent years saw the flourishing of first Arabic novels then the Francophone Arab novel Only in the last two decades has the Anglophone Arab novel experienced a second coming and it is this re emergence of literary activity that is the focus of this collection Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate the Companion presents a range of critical responses and pedagogical approaches to the Anglo Arab novel It offers both classroom friendly essays and critically sophisticated analyses bringing together original critical studies of the major Anglo Arab novelists from established and emerging scholars in the field

Dissident Writings of Arab Women Brinda J. Mehta,2014-03-14 Dissident Writings of Arab Women Voices Against Violence analyzes the links between creative dissidence and inscriptions of violence in the writings of a selected group of postcolonial Arab women The female authors destabilize essentialist framings of Arab identity through a series of reflective interrogations and contesting literary genres that include novels short stories poetry docudramas interviews and testimonials Rejecting a purist literature for literature s sake ethic they embrace a dissident poetics of feminist critique and creative resistance as they engage in multiple and intergenerational border crossings in terms of geography subject matter language and transnationality This book thus examines the ways in which the women s writings provide the blueprint for social justice by voicing protest and stimulating critical thought particularly in instances of social oppression structural violence and political transition Providing an interdisciplinary approach which goes beyond narrow definitions of literature as aesthetic praxis to include literature s added value as a social historical political and cultural palimpsest this book will be a useful resource for students and scholars of North African Studies Postcolonial Studies Francophone Studies and Feminist Studies

Hope and Other Dangerous Pursuits Laila Lalami,2005-01-01 Set in modern day Morocco the story of four vastly different Moroccans who illegally cross the Strait of Gibraltar in an inflatable boat headed for Spain chronicles the circumstances that drive them to risk their lives and the rewards that may or may not prove to be worth the danger On Health and Contemporary Terrorist Threats Chi Sum Garfield Lau,2017-05-11 This book investigates how the breakdown of the family and the conventional gendering of roles gives rise to terrorist violence as portrayed in various African Anglophone narratives written by internationally renowned authors including Chinua Achebe Doris Lessing J M Coetzee and the award winning contemporary Moroccan author Laila Lalami It proves that the indispensable relationship between an eroding family structure and terror is not only an observation found in African Anglophone narratives but rather that this relationship can help us to better comprehend terror as a globalized phenomenon in the twenty first century Both the novels and the real life cases of various terrorist figures such as Osama bin Laden and Mohamed Morsi seemingly suggest a linkage between an alternative family institution in the form of fundamentalist religious sects and terror Referencing paratexts in fiction and biography the book adopts a ground breaking approach to juxtapose the portrayal of fictional characters to the life story of Malala Yousafzai a Pakistani student who has resisted Taliban rule in Afghanistan at great personal risk When viewed together these paratexts capably represent a viable afterlife of ideology and narrative to the colonial legacy of terror and the reinvention of that legacy as a tradition of contemporary fundamentalism in response to the failure of states to protect the
