Dangerous Competition Critical Issues In Ecompetitive Intelligence Analysis:

Dangerous Competition Richard Telofski, 2001 Using a punchy and take no prisoners style to look at the process of evaluating a business competitor at the dawn of the 21st century Dangerous Competition blazes new ground and in its journey awakens the reader as to what truly makes a competitor dangerous here in the electronic age Concentrating not on the physical corporation but rather on the virtual competitor the book examines the issues critical to the analysis of intelligence obtained about an ebusiness competitor Rather than simply looking at the competitive intelligence retrieval process a place where so many books have gone before Dangerous Competition takes a different road and tells the reader what they should be looking for in the ebusiness competitor what it means and why it makes that competitor dangerous

Business Driven Information Systems Paige Baltzan, 2008 The Baltzan and Phillips approach in Business Driven Information Systems discusses various business initiatives first and how technology supports those initiatives second The premise for this unique approach is that business initiatives drive technology choices in a corporation Therefore every discussion addresses the business needs first and addresses the technology that supports those needs second This approach takes the difficult and often intangible MIS concepts brings them down to the student s level and applies them using a hands on approach to reinforce the concepts BDIS provides the foundation that will enable students to achieve excellence in business whether they major in operations management manufacturing sales marketing etc BDIS is designed to give students the ability to understand how information technology can be a point of strength in an organization Publisher s website
