Armstrong's Handbook of Human Resource Management Practice Michael Armstrong, Stephen Taylor, 2023-01-03
Armstrong's Handbook of Human Resource Management Practice is the definitive resource for HRM students and professionals helping readers understand and implement HR to align with business needs. This book provides detailed coverage of all areas essential to the HR function such as employment law, employee relations, learning and development, performance management and reward management. It also covers the HR skills needed to ensure professional success including leadership, managing conflict, interviewing and using statistics. It is illustrated throughout in full colour and has a range of pedagogical features to consolidate learning such as source review boxes, key learning points and case studies from international organizations such as IBM, HSBC and Johnson and Johnson. This fully updated 16th edition includes new chapters on managing remote workers and developments in digital human resource management practices. There are also updates to reflect the changes throughout the HR function such as performance leadership, smart reward and employee wellbeing. Armstrong's Handbook of Human Resource Management Practice is suited to both professionals and students of undergraduate and postgraduate degrees. It is also aligned with the Chartered Institute of Personnel and Development (CIPD) profession map so can be used by those studying the Associate Level 5 and Advanced Level 7 qualifications. Online supporting resources include comprehensive handbooks for lecturers and students, lecture slides, all figures and tables, toolkits and a literature review, glossary and bibliography.

Work Less Jon Peirce, 2024-01-02
You can't have a healthy economy with an unhealthy work force. Work Less proposes ways to reduce work hours and keep workers happier, healthier and more productive. Recent years have revealed just how stressed out many workers are. While the trend to longer hours has been developing for several decades the trend's effects have been aggravated during the pandemic by the growing use of Zoom and other new technologies for meetings with clients customers and co workers Exhausted and fed up today's workers are starting to insist on shorter hours and greater flexibility as to where they do their work There is growing consensus that the forty hour week the norm since the 1940s has outlived its usefulness And there is an urgent need for new work schedules that adequately reflect the far greater intensity of work today as well as the greater family demands on a labour force made up of almost fifty percent women who bear the brunt of domestic duties Work Less offers practical scheduling suggestions to employers and workers and numerous policy options for government policy makers to improve working conditions
