Langner, 2005-12-11 Although many books are written about bereavement very few are written about the fear of one s own death and most of these focus chiefly on terminal illness In contrast this book looks at the ways in which the fear of death operates on a back burner throughout our lives and how it influences the choices we make and the paths that we follow in life The author presents a moral hierarchy of behavior used in coping with the fear of death and dying Actions

Actions and defenses: Abuse of process Clement Bates,1908 Disappearing Persons Benjamin Kilborne,2002-01-01

In Disappearing Persons psychoanalyst Benjamin Kilborne looks at how we control appearance as an attempt to manage or take charge of our feelings Arguing that the psychology of appearance has not been adequately explored Kilborne deftly weaves together examples from literature and his own clinical practice to establish shame and appearance as central fears in both literature and life and describes how shame about appearance can generate not only the wish to disappear but also the fear of disappearing A hybrid of applied literature and psychoanalysis Disappearing Persons helps us to understand the roots of the psychocultural crisis confronting our increasingly appearance oriented shame driven society Adjudicated Forms
