Reading the Bible in Islamic Context Daniel Crowther, Shirin Shafaie, Ida Glaser, Shabbir Akhtar, 2017-11-08 In the current political and social climate there is increasing demand for a deeper understanding of Muslims the Qur an and Islam as well as a keen demand among Muslim scholars to explore ways of engaging with Christians theologically culturally and socially This book explores the ways in which an awareness of Islam and the Qur an can change the way in which the Bible is read The contributors come from both Muslim and Christian backgrounds bring various levels of commitment to the Qur an and the Bible as Scripture and often have significantly different perspectives The first section of the book contains chapters that compare the report of an event in the Bible with a report of the same event in the Qur an The second section addresses Muslim readings of the Bible and biblical tradition and looks at how Muslims might regard the Bible Can they recognise it as Scripture If so what does that mean and how does it relate to the Qur an as Scripture Similarly how might Christian readers regard the Qur an The final section explores different analogies for understanding the Bible in relation to the Qur an The book concludes with a reflection upon the particular challenges that await Muslim scholars who seek to respond to Jewish and Christian understandings of the Jewish and Christian scriptures A pioneering venture into intertextual reading this book has important implications for relationships between Christians and Muslims It will be of significant value to scholars of both Biblical and Qur anic Studies as well as any Muslim seeking to deepen their understanding of the Bible and any Christian looking to transform the way in which they read the Bible Sufi Ritual Ian Richard Netton, 2014-03-18 This study reveals the world of Sufi ritual with particular reference to two major Sufi orders It examines the ritual and practices of these orders and surveys their organisation and hierarchy initiation ceremonies and aspects of their liturgy such as dhikr litany and sama mystical concert Comparisons are made with the five pillars of Islam arkan and the Sufi rituals together with the arkan are examined from the perspective of theology phenomenology anthropology and semiotics The work concludes with an examination of the Sufi in the context of alienation This is a major work which highlights the importance of Sufi ritual and locates it within the broader domain of the Islamic world Methods, Methodologies, and Perspectives in the Humanities and Social Sciences With Particular Reference to Islamic Studies: A Critical Rationalist Interpretation Ali Paya, 2021-01-01 This book presents the first comprehensive introduction to methods and methodologies in the humanities and social sciences in general and Islamic Studies in particular from a critical rationalist point of view The book aims to be a self sufficient theoretical and practical guide to the topics that it introduces It contains a large selection of fully worked out review activities and review questions plus topics for further discussion which are devised to assist readers to better understand the issues which are discussed in the book Last but not least all efforts have been made to make sure that most if not all of the reading materials which are recommended in the book are not only of the highest quality but also freely available on the internet Muslims as Actors Jacques Waardenburg, 2012-02-13 This book deals with Islamic studies and with the question how the scholarly study of religion can contribute to the study of Islam The author advocates studying Islamic phenomena as signs and symbols interpreted and applied in diverse ways in existing traditions He stresses the role of Muslims as actors in the ongoing debate about the articulation of Islamic ways of life and construction of Islam as a religion A careful study of this debate should steer clear of political religious and ideological interests Research in this area by Muslims and non Muslim scholars alike should address the question of what Muslims have made of their Islam in specific circumstances Current political contexts have created an unhealthy climate for pursuing an open approach to Islam based on reading observing listening and reflecting Yet precisely nowadays we need to look anew at ways of Muslim thinking and acting that refer to Islam and to avoid certain schemes of interpreting Muslim realities that are no longer adequate for present day Muslim life situations Muslim recourse to Islam can be studied as human constructions of value and meaning and relations between Muslims and others can be seen in terms of human interaction without blame always falling on Islam as such The Islamic Quarterly, 1995 Islam and Ecology Richard C. Foltz, Frederick Mathewson Denny, Azizan Haji Baharuddin, 2003 Articulating a contemporary Islamic environmental ethic is all the more urgent because Western style conservation efforts do not fit all cultural and philosophical traditions This volume outlines the Islamic world view and reviews the ways it can be interpreted reassessed and applied to environmental problems like pollution and water scarcity The Muslim World Book Review, 1994 Iqbal Review, 2007 A Formula for Conversation Livingstone A.
