Deconstruct Images Turkish Woman:

Deconstructing Images of The Turkish Woman Zehra Arat, 1998-03-01 Along with the rest of the world the country of Turkey is beset by efforts to push women into a particular prototype This collection of essays seeks to combat such efforts by delving below the surface of common stereotypes surrounding Turkish women Encompassing such diverse fields of study as political science economics business ethnography history and literature Deconstructing Images of the Turkish Woman gathers experts from around the world to explore various images attributed to or imposed upon Turkish women Written from the perspectives of the 1990s the essays integrate around the unifying theme of changes and continuities in the images of Turkish women from the late nineteenth century to the present The essayists situate the representations of women in their historical and ideological contexts exposing myths and clarifying the complexities which are connected to them An important work which focuses on a frequently overlooked country Deconstructing Images of the Turkish Woman promises to enlighten and enrich any reader's understanding of this topic

Women and Turkish Cinema Eylem Atakav, 2013 Since 2000 there has been a considerable effort in Turkish cinema to come to terms with the military's intervention in politics and subsequent national trauma It has resulted in an outpouring of cinematic texts This book focuses on women and Turkish cinema in the context of gender politics cultural identity and representation The central proposition of this book is that enforced depoliticisation introduced after the coup is responsible for uniting feminism and film in 1980s Turkey The feminist movement was able to flourish precisely because it was not perceived as political or politically significant In a parallel move in the films of the 1980s there was an increased tendency to focus on the individual on women's issues and lives in order to avoid the overtly political Women and Turkish Cinema provides a comprehensive view of cinema's approach to women in a country which straddles European and Middle Eastern cultural conceptions identities and religious values and will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of Film Studies Gender Studies and Middle East Studies amongst others

New Public Spheres Peter Thijssen, Walter Weyns, Sara Mels, 2016-04-29 The public sphere provides a domain of social life in which public opinion is expressed by means of rational discourse and debate Habermas linked its historical development to the coffee houses and journals in England Parisian salons and German reading clubs He described it as a bourgeois public sphere where private people come together and where they turn from a politically disempowered bourgeoisie into an effective political agent the public intellectual With communication networks being diversified and expanded over time the worldwide web has put pressure on traditional public spheres These new informal and horizontal networks shaped by the internet create new contexts in which an anonymous and dispersed public may gather in political communities to reflect critically on societal issues These de centered modes of communication and influence seeking change the role of the traditional public intellectual and at first sight seem to make their contributions less influential What processes therefore influence changes within public spheres and how can intellectuals assert authority within them Should we speak of different types of intellectuals according to the different modes of public intellectual engagement This ground breaking volume gives a multi disciplinary account of the way in which public intellectuals have constructed their role and position in the public sphere in the past and how they try to voice public concerns and achieve authority again within those fragmented public spheres today

The First World War and Its Aftermath T. G Fraser, T.G. Fraser, 2015-09-15 Think of a map of World War I and chances are that map will be of Europe but the First World War had just as heavy an impact on the Middle East shaping the region into what we know it as today This book gathers together leading scholars in the field to examine this impact which is crucial to understanding the region's current problems and the rise of groups like the Islamic State In addition to recounting the crucial international politics that drew fierce lines in the sands of the Middle East a story of intrigue between the British Russians Ottomans North Africans Americans and others the contributors engage topics ranging from the war's effects on women the experience of the Kurds sectarianism the evolution of Islamism and the importance of prominent intellectuals like Ziya Gökalp and Michel Aflaq They examine the dissolution of the Ottoman empire the exploitation of notions of Islamic unity and pan Arabism the influences of Woodrow Wilson and American ideals on Middle East leaders and likewise the influence of Vladimir Lenin's vision of a communist utopia Altogether they tell a story of promises made and promises broken of the struggle between self determination and international recognition of centuries old empires laying in ruin and of the political poker of the twentieth century that carved up the region separating communities into the artificial states we know today
