The idea of sustainable place shaping has made its way to the heart of the debate on the form and delivery of integrated economic development planning housing regeneration education transport and health policy for our neighbourhoods towns cities and regions The delivery of policy for place shaping has become a far more complex cross boundary and relational leadership task and there is now a requirement for a refreshed approach to leadership development for collaborative learning and associational working Going forward what is needed is a more insightful and comprehensive conceptual framework related to the leadership of place that takes account of the paradigm shift occurring in economic development planning and regeneration studies Against this background this timely book takes stock of the leadership literature and connects with the experience and views of those working in economic development planning and regeneration In this book we seek to enhance the discussion of these new leadership challenges This collection first appeared as a special issue of Policy Studies and is now published by kind permission in the Regional Studies Association book series Regions and Cities Fostering Employee Buy-in Through Effective Leadership Communication Tim P.
