Sustainability Management László Zsolnai, 2014-12-01 This book discloses the spiritual dimension in business ethics and sustainability management Spirituality is understood as a multiform search for meaning which connects people with all living beings and God or Ultimate Reality In this sense spirituality is a vital source in social and economic life The volume examines the spiritual orientations to nature and business in different cultural traditions Christianity Judaism Islam Sufism Hinduism Buddhism and Taoism It studies how spirituality and ecology can contribute to transforming contemporary management theory and praxis It discusses new leadership roles and business models that emerge for sustainability in business and shows how entrepreneurship can be inspired by nature and spirituality in a meaningful way

Ecological Stylistics Daniela Francesca Viridis, 2022-09-07 This book reflects the cutting edge in ecostylistic approaches to nature the environment and sustainability as represented in contemporary non literary discourse Firstly the book presents the ecolinguistic and stylistic terms and theories applied in this ecostylistic analysis ecosophy beneficial ambivalent and destructive discourses and foregrounding point of view metaphor and reviews the most recent literature in the field of ecostylistics Secondly the book examines the occurrences of five marker words nature environment ecosystem ecology sustainability on the websites of five environmental organisations and agencies Forestry England Greenpeace International National Park Service Navdanya International World Wide Fund for Nature The main research purpose of this study is to identify beneficial discourses in the environet and to investigate the beneficial ecostylistic strategies utilised to produce them Above all this book reminds us humans that we do not stand apart from nature we are a part of it The book will be of interest to scholars of stylistics ecolinguistics and ecocriticism as well as scholars of discourse analysis environmental communication and environmental humanities

River of Love in an Age of Pollution David Haberman, 2023-09-01 Celebrated as an aquatic form of divinity for thousands of years the Yamuna is one of India s most sacred rivers A prominent feature of north Indian culture the Yamuna is conceptualized as a goddess flowing with liquid love yet today it is severely polluted the victim of fast paced industrial development This fascinating and beautifully written book investigates the stories theology and religious practices connected with this river goddess collected from texts written over several millennia as well as from talks with pilgrims priests and worshippers who frequent the pilgrimage sites and temples located on her banks David L Haberman offers a detailed analysis of the environmental condition of the river and examines how religious practices are affected by its current pollution He introduces Indian river environmentalism a form of activism that is different in many ways from its western counterpart River of Love in an Age of Pollution concludes with a consideration of the broader implications of the Yamuna s plight and its effect on worldwide efforts to preserve our environment Celebrated as an aquatic form of divinity for thousands of years the Yamuna is one of India s most sacred rivers A prominent feature of north Indian culture the Yamuna is conceptualized as a goddess flowing with liquid love yet today it is severely pol

Figuring Animals M. Pollock, C. Rainwater, 2016-10-03 This is a collection of fifteen essays which expose weaknesses in western epistemological frames of reference that for centuries have limited our views and thus our experiences of animal being including our own The volume contributes to current discussions of new ways of seeing the other inhabitants of this world and more effective ways of sharing the world with them The contributors draw on and complement the growing field of ecocriticism but because the contributors draw on an array of disciplinary and cultural perspectives it will appeal to a wide audience ranging from literary scholars philosophers art historians anthropologists and cultural historians including graduate and undergraduate students in all these disciplines to laypersons interested in nature writing and environmental issues
