Deeper Experiences Of Famous Christians:

Deeper Experiences of Famous Christians James Gilchrist Lawson, 2024-05-30 Deeper Experiences of Famous Christians by James Gilchrist Lawson is an inspiring and enlightening collection of spiritual biographies that delves into the profound and transformative experiences of some of the most influential figures in Christian history. Lawson, a respected Christian author and historian, brings together the stories of men and women whose deep faith and extraordinary encounters with God have left an indelible mark on the Christian faith. Among the figures featured are saints like Augustine and Francis of Assisi, reformers such as Martin Luther and John Wesley, and revivalists like Jonathan Edwards and Charles Finney. Lawson meticulously recounts their struggles, revelations, and the divine interventions that led them to a deeper understanding of God's love and purpose for their lives. Through these stories, readers are given a window into the inner workings of God's grace and the ways in which He shapes and molds His servants. Deeper Experiences of Famous Christians is not just a historical account; it is a source of spiritual inspiration and encouragement. Lawson's engaging and accessible writing style brings these historical figures to life, making their experiences relatable and applicable to contemporary readers. The book serves as a powerful reminder that the same God who worked in the lives of these great Christians is still active and present today, inviting all believers to seek a deeper, more intimate relationship with Him. This book is an invaluable resource for anyone seeking to deepen their faith and understand the rich heritage of Christian spirituality. It is ideal for personal devotions, small group studies, and anyone interested in the lives of those who have profoundly influenced the course of Christianity. Deeper Experiences of Famous Christians offers timeless wisdom and inspiration, encouraging readers to pursue their own deeper experiences with God.

Deeper Experiences of Famous Christians James Gilchrist Lawson, 1911 Deeper Experiences Of Famous Christians. (Complete and Unabridged.) James Gilchrist Lawson, 2016-04-25 Dallas Willard writes Deeper Experiences is the one book other than the Bible that has most influenced me. Readers should take from Lawson's book the simple but profound truth that they too can know by experience the truths of Christ and His kingdom that are set forth in the Bible; that if with all their heart they truly seek God, they will be found and claimed by Him. Lawson describes the spiritual experiences of Old and New Testament characters and Christians from Tertullian to D. L. Moody and General Booth, and how these experiences transformed their lives. He chooses people from varied walks of life and across all denominations. Although the external circumstances and manifestations are very different, the essential Christian experience described is always the same: It is the baptism or filling or gift of the Holy Spirit. This edition is the unabridged original.

 LORENZO DOW Some one has said that all Spirit filled Christians appear peculiar or eccentric to the people of the world because the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God 1 Cor 2 14 This was especially true of Lorenzo Dow the quaint but famous pioneer Methodist preacher who about the beginning of the nineteenth century traveled about the world on foot and on horseback preaching the Gospel to tens of thousands and winning multitudes to Christ In his character Lorenzo Dow very much resembled John Bunyan but he seems to have had a quiet vein of humor which was lacking in the latter Like Bunyan he went astray with wicked boys in his youth and learned many of their ways Like Bunyan he was haunted by terrible dreams and visions And like Bunyan he was plunged into awful agony and despair by imagining that God had reprobated or predestined him to be damned Lorenzo Dow was born in Connecticut October 16 1777 His parents were born in the same town but were descended from English ancestors They had a son and four daughters beside Lorenzo who was next to the youngest They tried to educate the children well both in religion and common learning Lorenzo came near dying when two years of age and he always suffered from a weak constitution When he was between three and four years of age he was one day playing with a companion when he fell into so deep a muse concerning God and heaven that he forgot about his play He asked his companion if he ever said his prayers morning or night and when his friend replied no Lorenzo said Then you are wicked and I will not play with you and he went into the house When Lorenzo was eight years of age his parents removed to another vicinity the youth of Deeper experiences of famous christians; gleanes from their biographies, autobiographies and writings J.
