Deeply Dug In Mary Burritt Christiansen Poetry Series:

Begging for Vultures Lawrence Welsh, 2011-08-15 The poetry of Lawrence Welsh crosses many borders from South Central Los Angeles where he was raised to El Paso where he has lived for almost twenty years A newspaper man turned poet a punk rock songwriter who became an English teacher an Irishman at home in Texas Welsh gives voice to the famous the infamous and the forgotten Progress on the Subject of Immensity Leslie Ullman, 2013-08-30 Leslie Ullman s deeply meditative poems reflect an individual s exploration of herself and her relationship to the natural world and other people The Southwest is the setting of her inquiry and her work is grounded in the rhythms of the natural world The poems have a quiet intensity about them that engages the reader Provided by publisher Losing the Ring in the River Mariorie Saiser, 2013-03-30 Spare and incisive the poems in Losing the Ring in the River deal with three strong women Clara Emma and Liz women who are tough often sassy and have dreams that aren't guelled by the realities they face Saiser deftly explores the undercurrents connecting three generations and is at her most powerful when she explores how lives are restricted and sometimes painfully damaged by what people cannot or will not share with one another Saiser's poetry is as harsh as it is beautiful she avoids resolutions and easy endings focusing instead on the small hard won victories that each woman experiences in her life and in her love of those around her City of Slow Dissolve John Chávez, 2012-09-15 Before recovery comes the preparation to recover In City of Slow Dissolve John Cha vez takes readers through this journey the slow dissolve the unpacking and re packing of self that must take place before healing can begin Fusing language poetry lyric and narrative Cha vez uses syntactical play rhythm and repetition of key words and lines to lend immediacy to emotions and actions He tips words and images on their heads and invites readers to reexamine people and places that are at once familiar and utterly unfamiliar Say That Felecia Caton Garcia, 2013-03-15 In Caton Garcia's poems love loss memory and the hidden lives of a variety of characters become the interwoven themes of this book each presented in raw and unflinching narrative and metaphor The first section presents the speakers lived experiences and the second unveils a dreamlife where memory and history haunt the lives they lead Provided by publisher Flirt Noah Blaustein,2013-09-15 The narrator of these poems flirts constantly with women with physical danger with memory and grief with form and sound The poems are set in California and along the California border and a few poems reflect upon his wife s childhood in El Salvador Provided by publisher Tiempos Lejanos Nasario García, 2004 Presented in both Spanish and English these deceptively simple poems use ancient Spanish literary forms and the vernacular language of today to express the author's personal images of remote timesAAA1 2tiempos lejanos The Welcome Table Jay Udall, 2009 Jay Udall s poems reflect his individual as well as the common experience of personal awakening This collection of insightful poems evokes images and memories of the places environments and culture through which Udall has traveled during his lifetime His poems cross personal boundaries to express universal concepts of painful self realization and the acceptance of a beautiful yet harsh world However the world he describes is not just his own He fantastically ventures into the skin of lions mice and cicadas creating poignant metaphors of the human condition The beauty of his work is that Udall finds personal connections and insight in the most seemingly mundane experiences of life as well as the most traumatic and extreme events These coalesce to create an arena for us to think about our own life realizations while joining Udall on his journey What a fine book of poems this is and what a fine human being and pagan pantheistic soul Jay Udall is The poems are wide and deep they honor the living and the dead they tackle the minute particulars and the cosmic ones with a perfect steady unblinking deftness of language Speaking of the mortal animal body and its brother and sister creatures or of family or of the sweetness and bitterness of America Udall makes me feel grateful to be at his welcome table Alicia Ostriker author ofNo HeavenandThe Book of Seventy Jay Udall loves both the visible and the hidden beauties of our worlds He's neither shy nor boastful about his keen investigations into what some call the spirit worlds and others scoff at What is his natural mediation of such a divide Vocal riffs improvs and prayers maybe that talk to the dead the hummingbirds the arroyos and wind channels with great feeling and muscular poetry Judith Vollmer author of Reactor and The Door Open to the Fire Refuge of Whirling Light Mary Beath, 2005 Beath s intensely visual story poems are utterly transporting taking you out to longed after landscapes and at the exact same time into the terrain of our hearts Susan J Douglas author of Where the Girls Are Deeply Dug in Robert L. Barth, 2003 Thirty five years ago R L Barth was a Marine patrol leader in the First Reconnaissance Battalion in Vietnam Today he is a poet s poet who articulates the harsh realities and ironies of war in the style of the great classical satirists Barth writes about Vietnam but his soldier's take on the war is startlingly applicable to the conflicts of the twenty first century or to any war that happens to be going on I never once saw dying eyes That were not stunned or shattered by surprise That is just as it is never mind all the dulce et decorum exhortations of politicians who today as always clamor to kill us all In this slender but rich collection of poems R L Barth proves himself a worthy descendant of Martial and Archilochus lobbing grenades at what Kenneth Rexroth called the Social Lie capturing moments of grace and disgrace in combat and locating the Homeric nobility of ordinary soldiers under fire As he does he honors the language Read him eyes wide open and understand Gregory McNamee editor of The Desert Reader An inventive and resourceful poet very discreet his lines are built out of images balanced by concepts each giving weight to the other Poet or not Barth was in charge of an elite fighting group that stayed out longer than other units Many died including a friend of Barth's memorialized in Elegy for a Dead Friend one of the best war poems in English Thomas D Evelyn Christian Science Monitor How Shadows are Bundled Anne Valley-Fox, 2009 An extraordinarily rich collection of poems many of which explore what C G Jung referred to as the shadow that dark usually hidden part of each of Bolitas de Oro Nasario García, 2010-07-16 The author of Tiempos Lejanos Poetic Images from the Past returns to his us roots in a new and exciting book of poetry about his childhood in Guadalupe New Mexcio originally called Ojo del Padre presumably in honor of a priest who discovered a still bubbling spring in the area The village of Guadalupe is no more but

Garcia s vibrant word pictures transport us to a time and place of true community and existence Written first in Spanish then translated to English these poems paint his young life and the lives of his family members and neighbors in west central New Mexico in the mid twentieth century Garcia s perceptions of a wider world and all it includes but still anchored in the routines of home and play and work were imparted by his mother who never attended a day of school in her life If I had a choice to repeat any previous period of my life it would be my childhood in the Rio Puerco Valley it was unfettered replete with love and happiness but never immune to the trials and tribulations that people faced Since reliving one s past is not an option offering a poetic vision of my upbringing in rural New Mexico was the next best thing from the Introduction Mary Burritt Poetry Series ,19?? The Goldilocks Zone Kate Gale,2014-02-15 Goldilocks Zone explores the inventions of bridges condoms fireworks and glass weaved into the stories of creative people teetering on the brink of disaster But those lives are also immersed in light love joy and madness all the elements of a rich and wild inventive life
