Simple Hybrid Work Schedule For Us Audience:

Audience Genre Expectations in the Age of Digital Media Leo W. Jeffres, David J. Atkin, Kimberly A.

Neuendorf, 2022-12-05 This volume bridges the divide between film and media studies scholarship by exploring audience expectations of film and TV genre in the age of digital streaming using qualitative thematic and quantitative data driven analyses Through four ground breaking surveys of audience members and content creators the authors have empirically determined what audiences expect of various genres the extent to which these definitions match those of scholars and critics and the overall variation and complexity of audience expectations in the age of media abundance They also examine audience habits and preferences drawing from both theory and original empirical analyses with a view toward the implications for the moving image in a rapidly changing media environment The book draws from the data to develop a number of new concepts including genre repertoire genre hybridity audience interest maximization and variety seeking and a new stage of genre development genre bending It is an ideal resource for students and scholars interested in the symbiotic relationship between audiences and the moving image products they consume as well as the way the current digital media environment has impacted our understanding of film and TV genres

Seventies British Cinema Robert Shail, 2019-07-25 Seventies British Cinema provides a comprehensive re evaluation of British film in the 1970s The decade has long been written off in critical discussions as a doldrums period in British cinema perhaps because the industry facing near economic collapse turned to unacceptable low culture genres such as sexploitation comedies or extreme horror The contributors to this new collection argue that 1970s cinema is ripe for reappraisal giving serious critical attention to populist genre films they also consider the development of a British art cinema in the work of Derek Jarman and Peter Greenaway and the beginnings of an independent sector fostered by the BFI Production Board and producers like Don Boyd A host of highly individual directors managed to produce interesting and cinematically innovative work against the odds from Nicolas Roeg to Ken Russell to Mike Hodges As well as providing a historical and cinematic context for understanding Seventies cinema the volume also features chapters addressing Hammer horror the Carry On films Bond films of the Roger Moore period Jubilee and other films that responded to Punk rock heritage cinema and case studies of key seventies films such as The Wicker Man and Straw Dogs In all the book provides the final missing piece in the rediscovery of British cinema's complex and protean history Contributors Ruth Barton James Chapman Ian Conrich Wheeler Winston Dixon Christophe Dupin Steve Gerrard Sheldon Hall I Q Hunter James Leggott Claire Monk Paul Newland Dan

The notions of other peoples cultures and natural conditions have always been determined by the epistemology of imagination and fantasy providing much freedom and creativity and yet have also created much fear anxiety and horror In this regard the pre modern world demonstrates striking parallels with our own insofar as the projections of alterity might be different by degrees but they are fundamentally the same by content Dreams illusions projections concepts hopes utopias dystopias desires and emotional attachments are as specific and impactful as the physical environment This volume thus sheds important light on the various lenses used by people in the Middle Ages and the early modern age as to how they came to terms with their perceptions images and notions Previous scholarship focused heavily on the history of mentality and history of emotions whereas here the history of pre modern imagination and fantasy assumes center position Imaginary things are taken seriously because medieval and early modern writers and artists clearly reveal their great significance in their works and their daily lives This approach facilitates a new deep structure analysis of pre modern culture Musical Courier and Review of Recorded Music ,1916 Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1917 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1917 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1917 The Market World and Chronicle ,1911 Friends Intelligencer ,1900 The Athenaeum ,1870 American Druggist ,1910 Scientific American ,1888 Monthly magazine devoted to topics of general scientific interest American Nut Journal ,1916
