The dangers of social media. How cancel culture and shitstorms can affect companies and how to recover from it

Kira Mertens, 2022-05-31 Bachelor Thesis from the year 2020 in the subject Communications Public Relations Advertising Marketing Social Media grade 1.1 Westfälische Hochschule Gelsenkirchen Bocholt Recklinghausen language English abstract The following Bachelor thesis is meant to analyze if and how cancel culture and shitstorms online especially on social media can affect companies and how affected companies can recover from the outcomes For avid social media users online shitstorms especially on the platform Twitter can frequently be witnessed It was therefore a very interesting topic to look further into to be able to understand what can trigger a shitstorm and what the consequences for companies could look like This thesis is also supposed to answer if or how a company can recover from a shitstorm if they were affected by one Furthermore it is meant to show what effective measurements could look like and if shitstorms could even be prevented in the first place and if yes how they could be prevented To achieve that the first step will be to take a closer look at what makes social media so important to businesses For that an insight on the most important social media apps and websites will be given After that the dangers of social media to companies will be analyzed The thesis will then continue by showing what makes shitstorms and cancel culture dangerous to a company To achieve that possible triggers of a shitstorm will be analyzed as well as what phases a shitstorm has and what possible outcomes could look like Furthermore a closer look will be taken at how consumers react to shitstorms by analyzing the results of a self made survey The survey was made to understand if and how consumers let shitstorms influence their buying decisions and if they would stop buying a certain product or brand if they were involved in a shitstorm Following that three companies Nestl Amazon and Nike which have already been at the center of a shitstorm will be analyzed as case studies To analyze the companies a closer look will be taken at the reasons for these shitstorms how each company was affected in terms of image and revenue and how they handled the situation Furthermore it will be explained if shitstorms could be prevented in the first place and how to successfully manage and recover from a shitstorm when affected by one For this a best practice example will be given in chapter 6

Benefits of Influencer Marketing in Tourism Alina Fackler, 2018-04-17 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject Business economics Offline Marketing and Online Marketing grade 2.0 University of Applied Sciences Deggendorf language English abstract Nowadays it is a decisive role for the image of a company to be represented on social media because it is one of the most important type of media in today's time The influence of traditional media is declining sharply Companies thus lose the opportunity to reach their target groups via these older communication channels At the same time almost 80% of adults are online and are spending daily 166 minutes on average in the web Consumers look at other consumers to inform themselves about products and services This is why a new segment of Marketing has developed so called Influencer Marketing It is a trend topic and many companies deal already with it Many tourism companies agree that Marketing of their offers is mostly online But customers do not exclusively inform themselves online Word of mouth from family and friends are still worth a lot Consequently the tourism companies cannot compete with personal relations Nevertheless there is an opportunity to work with bloggers and thus imitate the personal recommendation Most tourism experts are already actively using social media and look above all opportunities for stronger customer loyalty direct contact with customers but also for addressing new target groups The aim of the present work is to define Influencer Marketing and to work out the benefits for the tourism industry
