Updated Hybrid Work Schedule For Teachers:

Teaching and Time Poverty Greg Thompson, Anna Hogan, 2024-12-04 As teacher shortages reach a global crisis point this book explores how time poverty has become a critical factor in the working lives of teachers and school leaders Arguing that we need to move away from framing the problem of teachers work as simply workload this book suggests that understanding time poverty is the first step in moving toward more manageable working lives The book brings together international perspectives on teacher time poverty drawing on theoretical and empirical work to underscore the growing complexity of teachers work and how this impacts job satisfaction stress and feeling that there is never enough time to accomplish all that needs to be done Many policy solutions misdiagnose the problems of teachers work simply suggesting it is an issue of workload The chapters investigate issues of work intensification finding that teachers are not only working longer but also working harder as they manage more complex classrooms and policy mandates This book is essential reading for those interested in understanding how current education policy both produces time poverty and could better identify and respond to the complexities of teachers work

Professionalism and Teacher Education Amanda Gutierrez, Jillian Fox, Colette Alexander, 2019-05-15 This book explores how educators are proactively working to reclaim teacher professionalism by engaging in exemplary practice and promoting quality education for all It examines voices in contemporary Australian teacher education and how professionalism can contribute to achieving the multiplicity of purposes in education The work of contemporary teachers and teacher educators and perceptions about this work have changed significantly In recent times governments have identified key issues linked to the quality of teachers as presented in multiple inquiries creating shifts in public policy and increasing regulation Educators must work towards improving public and policy maker perceptions of teaching as a profession Teacher educators make an important contribution in engaging in ongoing scholarship and debate that examine research and practice and speak back to managerial discourses on professionalism It is through this work that educators shape and re shape understanding of what it means to be a professional
