Quality of Life in Academia: New Perspectives for Assessing and Promoting Wellbeing in University Population Barbara Loera, Andreina Bruno, Sara Viotti, Imke Hindrichs, Lara Bertola, 2025-01-21 Over the last 20 years changes in higher education have stimulated research on academic working life Indeed the application of a market oriented system and new public management policies in higher education have increased the emphasis on internationalization accountability and management of academic work These changes have increased the complexity of the academic work profile which is characterized by teaching research and institutional demands including public engagement to strengthen the interaction between university industry and society The COVID 19 pandemic introduced far reaching challenges that have further increased the psychosocial work demands Universities continue to face continuous and rapid changes that have led to increased levels of work related stress for both teaching and research academic staff TRAS and technical and administrative staff TAS This scenario has also had a negative impact on the academic life and well being of university students

Sustainable Resilient Built Environments Rama Devi Nandineni, Susan Ang, Norwina Binti Mohd Nawawi, 2024-07-05 The proceedings of Sustainable Resilient Built Environments are based on the SRBE 2022 conference held in December 2022 It focuses on the advances under the overarching theme of Sustainability The concept of Sustainability has been conventionally defined as meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs In scientific literature sustainable development has been analysed using different qualitative approaches such as economic social ecological cultural institutional ethical and political In this edited volume the concepts of both sustainability and resilience are considered to open up useful pathways towards achieving sustainable buildings and infrastructure Though the concepts of sustainability and resilience are considered to help improve the built environment the interrelations and interdependence between these two concepts are not clearly evident This has led to the questions such as Is the sustainable built environment always resilient Is the resilient built environment always sustainable What more is needed for sustainability In exploring these pertinent questions the proposed edited volume is expected to unveil and disseminate new insights on the themes related to sustainable and resilient built environment The themes of the proceedings lay a platform for researchers and professionals to integrate the aspects including smart innovation technologies green energy efficiency carbon reduction sustainability and resilience with regard to buildings and other built infrastructure Specific objectives included as per the five themes are as follows Environment Design and Sustainability Sustainable Smart Buildings Community Resilience Social Sustainability Heritage and Sustainability Pandemic issues and sustainable development

Global Voice #21 Council on Business & Society, Welcome to Global Voice magazine 21 Out of the Tin Can This spring issue of the Council on Business Society s quarterly magazine contains 96 pages of research and opinion based articles featured in two sections Business Society and Leadership Management We re delighted to include a special double page dedicated to two new CoBS Deans Dean Lee Newman and Dean Yu Sakasume having respectively taken up their functions at leading member institutions IE Business School Spain and Keio Business School Japan This issue s Editorial also features a spotlight on the unique value case studies bring to the learning experience co authored by Richard McCracken Director of The Case Centre the world s leading independent home of the case method and Prof Adrian Zicari of the Council on Business Society A wry and playful glance at business buzz words and maybe even the state of our hectic modern society is included in our double page cartoon penned by Tom Gamble of the CoBS and illustrated by Matthieu Anziani of ESSEC Business School And as usual hats off to the superb Global Voice graphic design by CoBS Head of Design M lissa Guillou Faculty practitioner and student articles provide the bread and butter of this issue with topics covering big data and customer value how to manage remote working designing mentorship programmes TechForGood greening up supply chains with circular economy strategy non financial social and environmental disclosure and a spotlight on smart cities in Japan among others And lastly you may ask why this issue carries the subtitle Out of the Tin Can The temptation is to say that it s up to you to interpret it for there are many interpretations possible Some of these might point to the David Bowie classic Space Oddity and the fact that at last many of us in our societies are once again able to step out of the confinement imposed by the pandemic to breathe freely again Another interpretation hand in hand with the snappy front cover image might refer to Andy Warhol s iconic pop art consumerism or simply the tastiness of the contents the tin cans hold a little like the insights in this magazine if I dare say And lastly the shades of green to the cans give the message that our consuming society might well contain a new and more responsible sustainable taste to it In any case we hope you download this Global Voice 21 issue open it up and consume its insights with immoderation Enjoy your reading
