Decade Of Collecting 1966 1976:

Japanese Women Artists, 1600-1900 Pat Fister, Fumiko Y. Yamamoto, 1988 Museum Representations of Maoist China Amy Jane Barnes, 2016-04-15 The collection interpretation and display of art from the People's Republic of China and particularly the art of the Cultural Revolution have been problematic for museums. These objects challenge our perception of Chineseness and their style content and the means of their production question accepted notions of how we perceive art. This book links art history, museology and visual culture studies to examine how museums have attempted to reveal, discuss and resolve some of these issues. Amy Jane Barnes addresses a series of related issues associated with collection and display: how museums deal with difficult and controversial subjects; the role they play in mediating between the object and the audience; the role of the Other in the creation of Self and national identities; the nature, role and function of art in society; the museum as image maker; the impact of communism and Maoism on the cultural history of the twentieth century and the appropriation of communist visual iconography. This book will be of interest to researchers and students of museology, visual and cultural studies as well as scholars of Chinese and revolutionary art. Lichbach, Peter Grabosky, 2017-04-07 This volume evaluates the state of the art in conflict studies. Original chapters by leading scholars survey theoretical and empirical research on the origins, processes, patterns and consequences of most forms and contexts of political conflict: protest, repression and rebellion. Contributors examine key pillars of conflict studies including civil war, religious conflict, ethnic conflict, transnational conflict, terrorism, revolution, genocide, climate change and several investigations into the role of the state. The research questions guiding the text include inquiries into the interactions between the rulers and the ruled, authorities and challengers, cooperation and conflict, accommodation and resistance and the changing context of conflict from the local to the global. Index to Reproductions of American Paintings Appearing in More Than 400 Books Mostly Published Since 1960 Lyn Wall Smith, Nancy
