From Public Service Broadcasting to Public Service Media Gregory Ferrell Lowe, Jo Bardoel, 2007. The core challenge facing public service broadcasting today is the transition to public service media. This understanding characterised discourse among participants in the RIPE 2006 conference in the Netherlands, the theme of which was Public Service Broadcasting in the Multimedia Environment: Programmes and Platforms. The contributors in this volume focus attention on issues of strategic concern and tactical importance in addressing the core challenge. A defining Etc

Cultural Dilemmas in Public Service Broadcasting Gregory Ferrell Lowe, Per Jauert, 2005. The Decline and Fall of Public Broadcasting David Barsamian, 2001. Concentration of the media has reached new heights, making it harder for alternative and critical voices to gain a hearing. The recent 86 billion merger of Time Warner and AOL is just one of many signs of the narrowing of information sources. Market pressures have also encroached on the original mission of public broadcasting, which was to provide a voice for groups that may otherwise be unheard. Yet around the country, creative journalists and activists are creating more democratic, informative and engaging media. Whether they are working to defend and expand democratic access to existing media or building their own media alternatives through the radio, television or the World Wide Web, they are pioneering new ways of sharing information. In The Decline and Fall of Public Broadcasting, David Barsamian gives an insider's account of these new media activists and the challenges they confront, drawing on his years of experience in public radio. Since 1986, Barsamian has been the producer of the highly acclaimed Alternative Radio, a weekly one-hour public affairs program broadcast in North America, Europe, South Africa and Australia, as well as short wave radio and the Internet. David Barsamian is the producer of the award-winning syndicated radio program Alternative Radio. His interview books with luminaries such as Noam Chomsky, Howard Zinn and Edward W. Said have sold in the hundreds of thousands. His most recent interview book is Propaganda and the Public Mind: Conversations with Noam Chomsky, South End Press, 2001. He is also the author of Eqbal Ahmad: Confronting Empire, South End Press, 2000. From Public Service Broadcasting to Public Service Communications Damian Tambini, Jamie Cowling, 2004. Reinventing Public Service Communication Petros Iosifidis, 2010-02-10. European Public Service Broadcasters (PSBs) are struggling to come to terms with a number of issues: the Europeanisation and globalisation of media ownership, production, programming and distribution; the marketisation of media output; technological convergence; and audience fragmentation. While the prevailing nation-state frameworks for cultural and political identity are gradually fading, some PSBs are finding it hard to serve and promote national culture and identity and to meet the challenge of growing uncertainties within a cosmopolitan Europe. At the same time, PSBs are considered to be an important way of helping European citizens make sense of such developments by bearing traces of collective identities and therefore creating an expanded pan European cultural space Can PSBs be multi cultural and mobilise a new sense of Europeanness while at the same time making the transformation into Public Service Media PSM and delivering public service content that will meet audience needs in a digital age The scholars in this volume covering mainly European countries but also looking comparatively at the US Canada Australia and New Zealand discuss the contemporary relevance of PSM as a cultural and political enterprise and as a forum in which a variety of cultural demands can best be met Canadian Slavonic Papers ,2000 NHK Broadcasting Studies ,2008 The BBC and Public Service Broadcasting Colin MacCabe,Olivia Stewart,1986 The Museum of Broadcast Communications Encyclopedia of Radio Museum of Broadcast Communications,2004 A premise of this unique encyclopedia is that radio broadcasting is so pervasive that its importance can be easily overlooked More than 600 articles provide ample illustration of the role this medium plays throughout the world From radio s invention to radio on the Internet the cross referenced and thoroughly indexed articles analyze over 100 years of topics programs issues people and places and provide leads to further reading Some 250 photographs give visual context to an often unseen world Scholars old time radio admirers and curious readers will appreciate the unparalleled comprehensiveness of this source The Top 20 Reference Titles of the Year American Libraries May 2004 Media Law Marie McGonagle,2003 This book takes a comprehensive look at the nature and role of the mass media and the rules and regulations governing them A follow up to A Textbook on Media Law first published in 1996 it also reflects developments in the media and media law over the last few years It considers the new challenges that advances in technology have brought and the legal response to them new applications of long held legal principles technology neutral legislation a search for global solutions to global problems In the Service of Young People? Cecilia von Feilitzen,Ulla Carlsson,2006 Articles include Violence and pornography in the media Raising media and internet literacy and When childhood get commercialized can children be protected Broadcasting and the National Question Jane Duncan,2001 New Statesman ,2003
