Developing a New Christology for a Postmodern Culture Donald D. Phillips,2024-11-05 In an increasingly secular contemporary postmodern culture many people have no understanding of Christianity or the importance and relevance of Jesus Christ As a result the Church s traditional liturgical texts as well as the church oriented language often used by Christians to explain the Gospel are not helpful or accessible to those outside the Church To respond to this challenge the author uses a semiotic method based on the work of Robert Schreier to engage and describe the nature of contemporary postmodern culture Using a narrative approach to the Gospels based on the work of the 20th century historical theologian Hans Frei the author derives a more modest open ended Christology which will converse with its cultural context and continue to be interpreted within contemporary Christian communities Using social values analysis from a particular contemporary culture the author then forms biblical statements about the person of Jesus Christ that are congruent with those values and uses them to construct a new Eucharistic Prayer The result is a liturgical prayer that is accessible and enables members of that local culture to be embraced by and to embrace the identity of Jesus Christ
