Deconstructing The Bible Abraham Ibn Ezras Introduction To The Torah:

Deconstructing the Bible Irene Lancaster,2003-09-02 Includes a new translation of Ibn Ezra s introduction to the Torah Multi disciplinary Ibn Ezra is an important figure in Jewish studies medieval studies philosophy linguistics and theology Inner-Midrashic Introductions and Their Influence on Introductions to Medieval Rabbinic Bible Commentaries Michel G. Distefano,2009-02-26 The opening sections of some exegetical Midrashim deal with the same type of material that is found in introductions to medieval rabbinic Bible commentaries The application of Goldberg s form analysis to these sections reveals the new form Inner Midrashic Introduction IMI as a thematic discourse on introductory issues to biblical books By its very nature the IMI is embedded within the comments on the first biblical verse 1 1 Further analysis of medieval rabbinic Bible commentary introductions in terms of their formal thematic and material characteristics reveals that a high degree of continuity exists between them and the IMIs including another newly discovered form the Inner Commentary Introduction These new discoveries challenge the current view that traces the origin of Bible introduction in Judaism exclusively to non Jewish models They also point to another important link between the Midrashim and the commentaries i e the decomposition of the functional form midrash in the new discursive context of the commentaries Finally the form analysis demonstrates how larger discourses are formed in the exegetical Midrashim Understanding YHWH Hillel Ben-Sasson,2019-12-11 This book unlocks the Jewish theology of YHWH in three central stages of Jewish thought the Hebrew bible rabbinic literature and medieval philosophy and mysticism Providing a single conceptual key adapted from the philosophical debate on proper names the book paints a dynamic picture of YHWH s meanings over a spectrum of periods and genres portraying an evolving interaction between two theological motivations the wish to speak about God and the wish to speak to Him Through this investigation the book shows how Jews interpreted God s name in attempt to map the human God relation and to determine the measure of possibility for believers to realize a divine presence in their midst through language Not in the Heavens David Biale,2010-10-18 The story of the origins and development of a Jewish form of secularism Not in the Heavens traces the rise of Jewish secularism through the visionary writers and thinkers who led its development Spanning the rich history of Judaism from the Bible to today David Biale shows how the secular tradition these visionaries created is a uniquely Jewish one and how the emergence of Jewish secularism was not merely a response to modernity but arose from forces long at play within Judaism itself Biale explores how ancient Hebrew books like Job Song of Songs and Esther downplay or even exclude God altogether and how Spinoza inspired by medieval Jewish philosophy recast the biblical God in the role of nature and stripped the Torah of its revelatory status to instead read scripture as a historical and cultural text Biale examines the influential Jewish thinkers who followed in Spinoza s secularizing footsteps such as Salomon Maimon Heinrich Heine Sigmund Freud and Albert Einstein He tells the stories of those who also took their cues from medieval Jewish mysticism in their revolts against tradition including Hayim Nahman Bialik Gershom Scholem and

Franz Kafka And he looks at Zionists like David Ben Gurion and other secular political thinkers who recast Israel and the Bible in modern terms of race nationalism and the state Not in the Heavens demonstrates how these many Jewish paths to secularism were dependent in complex and paradoxical ways on the very religious traditions they were rejecting and examines the legacy and meaning of Jewish secularism today

The Late Medieval Hebrew Book in the Western Mediterranean Javier del Barco, 2015-09-29 This collection takes the Hebrew book as a focal point for exploring the production circulation transmission and consumption of Hebrew texts in the cultural context of the late medieval western Mediterranean The authors elaborate in particular on questions concerning private vs public book production and collection the religious and cultural components of manuscript patronage collaboration between Christian and Jewish scribes artists and printers and the impact of printing on Iberian Jewish communities Unlike other approaches that take context into consideration merely to explain certain variations in the history of the Hebrew book from antiquity to the present the premise of these essays is that context constitutes the basis for understanding practices and processes in late medieval Jewish book culture
