Nesson,1998 Poetics of Alterity Soyoung Lee,2022-11-14

POETICS OF ALTERITY Education today is commonly oriented towards citizenship and skills for life with aims of happiness and wellbeing But this benign image harbours surreptitious forms of control which ultimately undermine the goods it professes to safeguard and stifle education s very purpose What release can there be from these constrictions Release is to be found as Soyoung Lee eloquently shows by attending to elements of experience that seem to escape our grip from challenging aspects of our moral lives to struggles over practicalities of curriculum content The more robust more outward turning orientation she demonstrates emphasises engagement with subject matter with problems and forms of narrative that defy pre determined formulations and categories This requires turning towards objects worthy of attention and towards people and their claims on us The arts and the humanities have special importance as spaces where alterity presents and expresses itself Lee s dialogue with Heidegger Levinas Derrida and Celan shows how acknowledgement of the other must condition not only practices of teaching and learning but practicalities of our social and political lives Attending to anxieties inherent in teaching and learning in school and the wider world the book s powerful rationale for the curriculum provides nothing less than a new grounding for the humanities

The Thinking University Expanded Yusef Waghid, Nuraan Davids, 2019-11-27 The Thinking University Expanded considers how the university can be extended and developed to an institution of play that becomes a gateway to new compositions and enactments of opportunities and happiness for university academics and students alike A university of and in continuous play can shape the public sphere in ways that reimagine both the epistemological and political and the metaphysical and the ethical Without abandoning the university s emphasis on thinking the book examines the prospects of opening the university to a new possible use The singular outcomes based lens of seeing higher education distorts the humane and ethical nuance of what a university can potentially do and aspire towards For this reason the book intends to find a new use for the idea of a university one that is responsible and responsive in both its pursuit of the truth and being open to different kinds of truth as made manifest in diverse contexts and life worlds This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the field of higher education

Reversibility - Politics under Conditions of Uncertainty Hartmut Behr, 2024-06-15 Western modernity is characterized by instrumental relations between humans and nature as well as between humans themselves that have caused irreversible environmental and social exploitation and degradation Many policy documents such as those by the United Nations Environment Programme warn of the uncertainty and unpredictability of our precarious conditions due to our social and ecological interrelations and interdependencies Accepting that our position in the world does not allow us secure knowledge of the consequences of politics Reversibility Politics under Conditions of Uncertainty asks how we can act politically in a responsible way when we cannot predict the outcomes of our decisions Hartmut Behr diagnoses Western modernity and its manifold crises as dominated by the view that fellow humans and natural environments are merely means to our individual ends Behr introduces a novel ethics of self restraint and the principle of reversibility a commitment to political actions whose effects shall not be indefinite or immutable to build a policy framework that demands both ethical and practical reflection on the conditions of action and that accounts for the limitations under which we act and live Identifying an urgent need for re thinking political progress and for policy reform Reversibility Politics under Conditions of Uncertainty presents a new understanding of the self and of political responsibility centred in a genuine acknowledgment of the human condition Reimagining Singapore Chee-Hoo Lum, Juliette Yu-Ming Lizeray, Chor Leng Twardzik Ching, 2023-08-01 This book approaches the subject of contemporary art by exploring the social embeddedness and identities of Singaporean artists Linking artistic processes and production to both personal worlds and wider issues the book examines how artists negotiate their relationships between self and society and between artistic freedom and social responsibility It is based on original research into the discourses and artistic practices of local artists with a special focus on emerging artists and artists whose work and perspectives engage with questions of identity Reimagining contemporary Singapore and their place within it artists are asserting their multiple and heterogeneous self identities and contesting hegemonic norms and notions as they negotiate and adapt to the world around them This book is relevant to students and researchers in the fields of cultural studies media studies art sociology of art arts education and race and ethnicity studies What Would Jesus Deconstruct? John D. Caputo, 2007-11 Uses the postmodern theme of deconstruction to suggest a constructive and provocative way forward for the church Derrida: A Guide for the Perplexed Julian Wolfreys, 2007-07-24 This guide provides students with a clear unintimidating introduction to Derrida the key concepts and ideas associated with his work and the major subjects he addresses The Political Ethics of Jean-François Lyotard and Jacques Derrida Georges de Schrijver, 2010 A genuine political ethics seems to require a universal perspective and yet we are told that the postmodern age eschews universal perspectives In this book Georges De Schrijver argues that the leading proponents of postmodernity have not as is commonly assumed abandoned the search for universals Rather they have sought to reshape the concept in ways that account for postmodernity's critique Examining the thought of both Jean Francois Lyotard who prophesies the end of the grand stories and Jacques Derrida the leading proponent of deconstruction De Schrijver comes to the conclusion that each in his turn is still in search of the universal Taking his lead from Kant's unrepresentable Idea Lyotard holds out hope for a universal expressed through respect for heterogeneity whereas Derrida arrives at this impossible dream through a critical study of Husserl's phenomenology The common bond for Lyotard and Derrida is their quest of the unrepresentable For Lyotard this comes through a sublime sadness urging him to side with the silenced party in legal disputes For Derrida the same quest is expressed through a yearning for the impossible things to come a justice that goes beyond legality a reshaping of the international juridical order and a hospitality that is truly unconditional in its reach Underlying the thought of both men is a profound appreciation for their Jewish ethical inheritance an appreciation they learn from Emmanuel Levinas In passing judgment on the new world order both authors go decidedly beyond Kant and thus beyond modernity in reaching for a truly transcultural perspective in this era of globalization Beyond Nihilism Susan Ray, 2003 The ideas underlying Benn's Ausdruckswelt not only anticipate and parallel many of the assumptions now current in recent trends in literary criticism they also disclose their ultimate limitations Benn's poetics were founded on the intellectual crises of the early years of the twentieth century Following Nietzschean leads Benn sought to achieve in his person and his work a return to a primitive archetypal mode of perception which he felt would restore a purer more natural mentality to modern man whom he portrayed as being far ahead of his syntax By focusing on Benn s early Expressionist prose and what this study calls his fictive self the author traces the relationship between Benn s Weltanschauung and later critical theory Building upon the latest scholarship she analyses Benn s poetics as precursor of certain postmodernist ideas concerning language meaning and polysemy aesthetics personal identity authorial intention versus reader reception intertextuality and the role of art in society By paying specific attention to the concept of the autonomous self and its relation to language this study demonstrates that Gottfried Benn s aesthetic theories do not represent the end of German Expressionism but rather the beginning of the present post modernist period

Neoplatonism After Derrida Stephen Gersh,2006 This volume deals with the relation between Derrida and Neoplatonism ancient patristic medieval presenting that relation in the form not only of the actual reading of Neoplatonism by Derrida but also of a hypothetical reading of Derrida by Neoplatonism

Deconstructing Development Discourse in Peru William W. Stein,2003 The Vicos Project was a major effort to apply anthropology to community development in a rural community of Andean Peru in the 1950s Deconstructing Development Discourse in Peru is a retrospective examination of the Vicos research and development project through a poststructuralist lens William Stein details the work of North American researchers with emphasis on factors which limited their capacity to engage in development Stein endeavors to apply the work of the French philosopher Jacques Derrida as an aid in the interpretation of events and reactions of both North American and Peruvian researchers
