The Yale Critics Jonathan Arac, Wlad Godzich, Wallace Martin, 1983 The Yale Critics was first published in 1983 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions A heated debate has been raging in North America in recent years over the form and function of literature At the center of the fray is a group of critics teaching at Yale University Harold Bloom Geoffrey Hartman Paul de Man and J Hillis Miller whose work can be described in relation to the deconstructive philosophy practiced by French philosopher Jacques Derrida For over a decade the Yale Critics have aroused controversy most often they are considered as a group to be applauded or attacked rather than as individuals whose ideas merit critical scrutiny Here a new generation of scholars attempts for the first time a serious broad assessment of the Yale group These essays appraise the Yale Critics by exploring their roots their individual careers and the issues they introduce Wallace Martin's introduction offers a brilliant compact account of the Yale Critics and of their relation to deconstruction and the deconstruction to two characteristically Anglo American enterprises Paul Bove explores the new criticism and Wlad Godzich the reception of Derrida in America Next come essays giving individual attention to each of the critics Michael Sprinker on Hartman Donald Pease on Miller Stanley Corngold on de Man and Daniel O'Hara on Bloom Two essays then illuminate deconstruction in America through a return to modern continental philosophy Donald Marshall on Maurice Blanchot and Rodolphe Gasché on Martin Heidegger Finally Jonathan Arac's afterword brings the volume together and projects a future beyond the Yale Critics Throughout the contributors aim to provide a balanced view of a subject that has most often been treated polemically While useful as an introduction The Yale Critics also engages in a serious critical reflection on the uses of the humanities in American today

Gray,1992-02-28 The heart of the bibliography is a comprehensive listing of literary and critical studies of biblical texts followed by a discussion of works that evaluate the reception of modern literary criticism in the world of biblical studies      Marxism and Totality Martin Jay,1984 Totality has been an abiding concern from the first generation of Western Marxists most notably Lukács, Gramsci and Bloch through the second exemplified by the Frankfurt School, Lefebvre, Goldmann, Sartre, Merleau-Ponty and Della Volpe up to the most recent typified by Althusser, Colletti and Habermas Yet no consensus has been reached concerning the term's multiple meanings expressive, decentered, longitudinal, latitudinal, normative or its implications for other theoretical and practical matters By closely following the adventures of this troublesome but central concept Marxism Totality offers an unconventional account of the history of Western Marxism      Letters, Literacy and Literature in Byzantium Margaret Mullett,2023-06-09 These studies look at general problems of reading Byzantine literature at literacy practices and the literary process but also at individual texts The past thirty years have seen a revolution in the way Byzantine literature has been viewed no longer is it considered a decadent form of classical literature or a turgid precursor of modern Greek literature There are still prejudices to overcome that there was no literary public or that Byzantium had no drama or humour but Byzantine texts are now read as literature in the social context of literacy and book culture One genre is treated here more fully the letter Derrida said that letters represent all literature In these studies epistolography is examined from the point of view of genre of originality of communication and as evidence for political history Other genres touched on include the novel, historiography, panegyric and hagiography The section on literary process includes essays on genre, patronage and rhetoric and the section on literacy practices deals with both writing and reading The collection includes one unpublished lecture which acts as introduction and additional notes and comments      Fictions at Work Mary M. Talbot,2014-09-19 In this book Mary Talbot shows how fiction works in the constitution and reproduction of social life She discusses both high and low fiction combining discussion of social context with language analysis Examples are taken from children's tales, romance, horror and science in her language analysis      A Short Guide to Writing about Literature Sylvan Barnet,1996 New features of this edition include chapters on critical approaches and evaluation of literature, expanded checklists for writing and reading, a new sample research paper, the most current MLA guidelines      Literature Sylvan Barnet,1997      Postmodern Fiction Larry McCaffery,1986-09-23 The scope of the work is broad with European and Latin American influences well represented Recommended for collections that emphasize fiction of the past two decades Library Journal      Writing and Reading Differently George Douglas Atkins,Michael L. Johnson,1985      Out of Chaos Umberto

Eco, William Edward Tanner, Anne Gervasi, Kay Mizell, 1991      Children's Literature Kay E. Vandergrift, 1990 Useful for practitioners as well as in the classroom this text treats literary theory research and the actual teaching of children's literature as one unit using course syllabi as practical illustration Ideal for staff in service programs      Genre, 1984
