Work At Home Antoinette Gathers, 2019-12-11 Have you gotten tired of going to work? Being around co-workers you don't like? Maybe you can't even get a job to be tired of yet because circumstances are hard. Whatever your reason is, we all understand that we have to survive. I was always fascinated to learn that people I knew held at-home positions. They make the same benefits, get paid even more than if they were to go into an office, and waste gas. Most of these positions have 401k's and health plan benefits. I give you not an outline but actual links to over 100 actively hiring companies that you can work right from the comfort of your own home. I also give some very useful tips. Plenty of BIG name companies are hiring right now as of DEC 2019. While you can find some of this information on your own, you will likely run into scams. I have a quick tip to avoid those instances also. Don't miss out on this book if you want real employment that you can do from the comfort of your own home.

Contagion Capitalism Sean Creaven, 2023-12-15 Contagion Capitalism situates the COVID-19 pandemic within the systems of global political economy and their attendant cultural modes and theorizes that these systems act as facilitators and drivers of global pandemic risk. Contagion Capitalism therefore critiques the institutionalized corporate capitalist control of the economy, the state, and science and the grave consequences this has on global public health policy, the ecological crisis of sustainability, and zoonotic pandemic events such as COVID-19. In doing so, this book addresses the failings of what may be termed as state science or establishment science in managing the pandemic as personified especially by those elements of the scientific elite placed in the service of the neoliberal state. This book also explores the limitations of corporate pharmacological technoscience in safeguarding public health, arguing that Big Pharma offers only partial remedies for problems of human illness and well-being, poses its own dangers to public health, and obfuscates the social bases of public ill health and of pandemic risk. Contagion Capitalism further argues that COVID-19 will not be the last or even the most dangerous such epidemiological event. This is because the social production and global dissemination of zoonotic diseases is integral to contemporary capitalism by virtue of its instrumental mode of science, its central dynamic of production for the sake of accumulation and the consumer mode this sustains as its own condition of existence These are the drivers of what may be termed as zoonotic accelerationism Contagion Capitalism will appeal to scholars in the humanities and social sciences with interests in neoliberal ideology and global political economy and their impact upon social political and cultural life
