Teaching and Learning in the Age of Generative AI Joseph Rene Corbeil, Maria Elena Corbeil, 2025-04-30 Teaching and Learning in the Age of Generative AI explores how educators can effectively harness the potential of artificial intelligence technologies while skillfully navigating its pedagogical, technical, ethical, institutional, and societal implications. The increasing accessibility of AI technologies among K-12 and higher education students has raised extensive concerns around academic integrity, though a deeper lineage of research and development suggests that these tools may be used to supplement instruction, prioritize critical thinking, and promote digital literacy. Bookended by in-depth analyses of the historical and future trajectories of artificial intelligence in education, this comprehensive resource provides evidence-based strategies for classroom implementation and helpful summaries of common benefits and risks. Teaching assistance, personalized learning, redefined assessments, anti-bias measures, and safeguards against misconduct and privacy infringement are among the wealth of topics addressed in these chapters. This book is an ideal text for undergraduate and graduate students of teacher education and curriculum and instruction, as well as for higher education teaching faculty, school technology coordinators, and talent development personnel in training and in service.

The Parent-School Board Feuds Gerard Giordano, 2024-10-02 During the COVID-19 pandemic, parents were able to observe their children in online classes. They were surprised by classroom discussions and assignments related to gender, race, ethnicity, and religion, along with the policies that were guiding curricula, tests, technology, athletics, discipline, safety, transportation, funding, and numerous other aspects of schools Parents began giving their advice to their school boards but when they were ignored they disrupted meetings wrote editorials created blogs staged rallies and lobbied state officials They were hoping to attract media attention and acquire political power and were stunned by their success TheParent School Board Feuds Essential Steps by Parents to Improve Schools recounts parent school board feuding about controversial classroom topics such as gender and race their disagreements about school policies including those affecting tests technology athletics and discipline and the impact that parents had during the pandemic and continue to have today
