Islam's Reformation of Christianity Zulfiqar Ali Shah, 2022 Jesus was a product of Semitic monotheism moral law piety and humility His kingdom was the other worldly His ethical monotheism was transformed by the Roman Empire and mythology The supernatural Trinitarian and miraculous Roman Christianity transitioned into unintelligible dogmas the abolition of law moral laxity this worldly kingdom and divine right absolutism Natural theology law cosmology and politics were all compromised Religious freedom was barred and persecutions were normalised Latin Christendom was a persecutory society Islam was an intellectual cure to Christian paradoxes and an egalitarian pluralistic alternate to Christian inquisitions and religiopolitical absolutism It spread in the Eastern Christian territories like a bush fire This reformation of Christian excesses in religiopolitical theology reformed its paradoxical incarnational theology antinomianism grace based salvation scheme divine right Church and monarchy interventionist cosmology and religious persecutions This insightful and groundbreaking new book provides an in depth study of the Islamic Southern Reformation of Christianity a reformation seldom acknowledged or studied by the historians It explores how the Islamic reformative scheme emphasised ethical transcendental monotheism natural theology and rational discourse It limited monarchy and placed significance on an inclusive pluralistic and free society The Seventh Century Islamic natural rational moral republican and egalitarian reformation was the Southern Reformation of Christianity long before the partial Northern Reformation of Luther and Calvin

Anthropomorphic Depictions of God Zulfikar Ali Shah,2012-01-01 This monumental study examines issues of anthropomorphism in the three Abrahamic Faiths as viewed through the texts of the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur'an Throughout history Christianity and Judaism have tried to make sense of God While juxtaposing the Islamic position against this the author addresses the Judeo Christian worldview and how each has chosen to framework its encounter with God to what extent this has been the result of actual scripture and to what extent the product of theological debate or church decrees of later centuries and absorption of Hellenistic philosophy Shah also examines Islam's heavily anti anthropomorphic stance and Islamic theological discourse on Tawhid as well as the Ninety Nine Names of God and what these have meant in relation to Muslim understanding of God and His attributes Describing how these became the touchstone of Muslim discourse with Judaism and Christianity he critiques theological statements and perspectives that came to dilute if not counter strict monotheism As secularism debates whether God is dead the issue of anthropomorphism has become of immense importance The quest for God especially in this day and age is partly one of intellectual longing To Shah anthropomorphic concepts and corporeal depictions of the Divine are perhaps among the leading factors of modern atheism As such he ultimately draws the conclusion that the postmodern longing for God will not be quenched by pre modern anthropomorphic and corporeal concepts of the Divine which have simply brought God down to this cosmos with a precise historical function and a specified location reducing the intellectual and spiritual force of what God is and represents causing the soul to detract from a sense of the sacred and thereby belief in Him
