Business Finance In Less Developed Capital Markets:

Business Finance in Less Developed Capital Markets Klaus Fischer (économiste), George J. Papaioannou, Hofstra University, 1992-12-10 Business finance in less developed economies cannot be analyzed or measured by the approaches utilized in countries such as the United States and Great Britain where stock markets can assess worth and channel capital with reasonable accuracy Most economic theory dealing with business finance has been developed in precisely this latter environment By bringing together economists from less developed countries with researchers from the United States and Western Europe these essays break new ground by focusing on the unique problems of capital markets in the developing world The problems of organizing securities markets and such capital market institutions as mutual funds are examined The sources of financial capital and the interaction of state credit policies and the investment decisions and practices of the private sector are also analyzed Together these essays provide developmental and business economists with provocative questions and will be of concern to all involved with economic growth in the less developed world The Changing

Environment of International Financial Markets Dilip K. Ghosh, Edgar Ortiz, 2016-01-01 This edited collection examines the emerging issues arising from increasingly globalized financial markets Topics covered include the exchange of rate market equilibrium and efficiency inflation and interest rates capital movements the balance of payments and international reserves foreign debt country risk analysis currency market arbitrage and speculative designs under market imperfection international tax issues and trade liberalization and offshore banking Competitiveness Strategy in Developing Countries Ganeshan Wignaraja, 2003-10-04 Globalization and structural adjustment offer many opportunities for export orientated industrialization in developing economies As a group competitiveness in the developing countries has improved but while East Asian economies have had rapid export growth and technological upgrades South Asian and African economies have lagged behind Old structures institutions behavioural patterns and public policies are ill adapted to deal with the challenges posed by technological change and economic liberalization Consequently there is an urgent need for change in government and private sector attitudes and strategies This volume seeks to generalise the lessons across developing country and enterprise cases and sheds light on which trade and industrial strategies and instruments work best and which do not work in relation to manufacturing competitiveness Stock Markets in Developing Countries Mansoor

Dailami, Michael Atkin, 1990 With foreign capital funds dwindling governments in many developing countries with increased Bank support are looking to develop capital markets to provide risk capital for the corporate sector But first some basic issues must be empirically explored IBSS: Economics: 1993 Vol 42 , 1994 This bibliography lists the most important works published in economics in 1993 Renowned for its international coverage and rigorous selection procedures the IBSS provides researchers and librarians with the most comprehensive and scholarly bibliographic service available in the social sciences The IBSS is compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science at the London School of Economics
