Business Research Projects Jimme Keizer, Piet Kempen, 2006-08-11 Almost all higher educational institutions have built some kind of fieldwork project into the advanced stages of their programmes and the research project should integrate theory practice knowledge and skills Students should be able to apply their acquired knowledge and understanding in a manner that indicates a professional approach to their work or vocation and have the ability to integrate knowledge and handle complexity and formulate judgements with incomplete or limited information It is important that they can communicate their conclusions and the knowledge and rationale underpinning these to specialist and non specialist audiences clearly and unambiguously Business Research Projects offers the reader a comprehensive framework for going through the successive process steps of the fieldwork project There is a logbook which provides for each of the ten steps a checklist enabling students to document the progress of their projects and communicate about the project with their coaches and supervisors Successful projects require specific process knowledge and skills Recognition and description of an organisational problem Design and organisation of a research project Communication with people on different levels within the organisation Interviewing listening negotiating giving presentations persuading people Project management Developing solutions in collaboration with people in the organisation Implementation of accepted solutions Business Research

Projects for Students A. D. Jankowicz, 2013-11-11 The idea for this book came about one Friday afternoon towards the end of a summer term I was giving the third project tutorial of the afternoon The first had been to a BA Business Studies student the second to a part time MBA student and the third to a student registered on the Diploma in Personnel Management programme and a great variety of issues had been dealt with during the course of the time involved Nevertheless I noticed that some of the material was common to all three students I found myself thinking that I was repeating myself and wanting to get through the basics as quickly as possible so that we could move on to the specifics of each particular project which we both each student and I found more interesting to deal with Unfortunately the basics were precisely those topics which I considered essential to the success of any project What's more they dealt with the sort of material which wouldn't on the whole have occurred spontaneously to many students and so it was a necessary part of my job to go through them One or two could be dealt with by issuing a handout and the student could be referred to the library for some of the rest but there wasn't a systematic written compilation of all the points that I needed to make Business Research Projects A.
