Mr. Gabe Hershel Marise, 2022-07-19 This book I pray expresses that the suffering a child endures because of a traumatic childhood does not have to be the determining factor in deciding the outcome of our lives The kind of life trauma a child or anyone goes through should not in any way determine their ability to overcome these traumas and have a productive adult life It is my belief that with a great Creator God and his divine intervention in our lives we as his children will be carried through life s traumatic experiences It is my belief that I and all of humankind were created for a great purpose The writing of this book or its purpose is not to gather sympathy but the opposite to explain that an individual does not have to allow their childhood or economic environment to set the standard for the rest of their lives In my childhood I attempted to subconsciously close myself off mentally or emotionally from what was occurring This denial allowed me a way of surviving through early life I called out to God the great Creator for help and guidance many times Without the help and the great love of God these traumas would probably have killed me from the shock From an early age and throughout my adult life I ve had to find ways to deal with my traumatic past With God and a drifter named Mr Gabe who showed up at all the right times like a guardian angel who seemed to know a lot about the same God my grandmother talked about I did survive throughout these traumas and have lived a relatively good life and achieved challenges that could only have been possible with God s love

Dead Woman Pickney Yvonne Shorter Brown, 2022-04-01 Dead Woman Pickney chronicles Yvonne Shorter Brown s life growing up in Jamaica between 1943 and 1965 and teaching in Canada from 1969 Told with stridency and humour the stories include both personal experience and history Taking up the haunting memories of childhood along with persistent racial marginalization of Black people both globally and in Canada the author sets out to construct a narrative that at once explains her own origins in the former slave society of Jamaica and traces the outsider status of Africa and its peoples The author s quest to understand the absence of her mother and her mother s people from her life is at the heart of the narrative The author struggles through life to discover the identity of her mother in the face of silence from her father s brutal family In this updated edition she adds a coda finding mother constructed from archives genealogy letters and journals Initially published in 2010 this second edition includes expanded text and a foreword by Sonja Boon author of What the Oceans

American Holidays Alfred Colo,2012-05-31 Herein are distinctly American holidays excluding Christmas and Easter which are global and more universal in nature and much too expansive requiring broader strokes than this shorter treatise can contain in its restricted space Holidays remind our nation of Gods miracles in His plan to fortify us all for lifes daily struggles At Christmas do our thoughts revolve around presents mostly Is Easter only a warm anticipation of Spring and is Thanksgiving the quest for family reunion and a delicious meal Remembering the spiritual origins of such special occasions affords us worship opportunities for Gods goodness to us and to our families friends and to our nation through them we may reflect upon our blessings while celebrating His greatness and bounty Bearing in mind what holidays and vacations mean to our general well being let us exercise our down time wisely as we each year of U S A holidays either head out or from the comfort of home trade places without GPS s high gas or air travel pat downs Do come along then for a free ride down some of my winding roads of personal experiences The Family Friend ,1886 Nomination of Alexander M.
