Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Life Cycles - A London bike courier decided to cycle around the world. 169 days later. he came back with a world record. Julian Sayerer,2014-06-05 Julian Sayerer grew up riding a bicycle Working as a bike courier in London he learned the world record for a circumnavigation by bike had been broken and that cycling into the sunset had been bought by banks and big business Determined to do things differently Julian set out to take back the record for the people Life Cycles is his story of that record riding 110 miles every 24 hours for 6 months on only 8 84 a day a route through jungles snow and 20 different countries He found himself stranded without money in the deserts of Kazakhstan held up by insurrections in northwest China and sleeping under motorway bridges in America's Deep South Taken by life on the road and a spirit of adventure he loved every minute of it A tale of excitement and world politics by bicycle travelling at 12mph Julian found that the Tartars of Central Asia aren't so different to the trailer families of Louisiana This book is a reminder that the world is out there and it's waiting for us This is a very inspiring tale that says a lot about the human race its hopes and expectations and there is even a bit about the bicycle especially spoke breakages Mike Burrows Designer of Chris Boardman's 1992 Olympic winning bicycle Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997 Bowker Editorial Staff,R R Bowker Publishing,1996-09 Planning for Learning through Minibeasts Rachel Sparks Linfield,Penny Coltman,2012-08-01 Plan for six weeks of learning covering all six areas of learning and development of the EYFS through the topic of minibeasts The Planning for Learning series is a series of topic books written around the Early Years Foundation Stage designed to make planning easy This book takes you through six weeks of activities on the theme of insects Each activity is linked to a specific Early Learning Goal and the book contains a skills overview so that practitioners can keep track of which areas of learning and development they are promoting This book also includes a photocopiable page to give to parents with ideas for them to get involved with their children's topic as well as ideas for bringing the six weeks of learning together The weekly themes in this book cover activities such as a minibeast walk make fridge magnet spiders play the bee game and then bring it all together in a special minibeast world event for friends and family Learning Language Through Literature in Primary Schools Peter Kennedy,Peter Falvey,1998-10-01 This resource book contains a wealth of ideas for primary school teachers of English who wish to use literary texts and techniques in the language classroom The book offers practical assistance in the form of lesson plans teaching procedures sample worksheets and follow up activities These have been tried out and reacted to by Hong Kong primary teachers so that what is presented here is realistic and feasible in local classrooms The materials will be useful for all practising primary teachers of English as well as for those on teacher education programmes The aim of the Experiential Dimension of the new Target Oriented Curriculum is to help Hong Kong primary school children Develop an ever improving capability to use English to respond and give expression to real and imaginative experience Activities related to storytelling rhyme songs and playlets are used here to help develop reading listening and speaking skills and to generate written work appropriate for this level Instead of language routines drills and practice exercises there is an opportunity for the children to develop confidence in using English through greater personal engagement The tasks call for the active involvement of all pupils When children see the words come alive and get up off the page their crucial first experiences of learning English are likely to be enriching and enjoyable ones
