My Travels by Canoe William V. McNaul, 2005-10-07 The story begins with the author as a child getting an unwitting education in the ways of moving water by playing in the creek that flowed by his boyhood home The McNaul residence was located between a railroad embankment and a highway which were confining borders for a kid growing up Finally aging and being permitted beyond these barriers lead to the discovery of canoeing The first trials and errors of boating and a slow advance to different types of canoe trips are covered in the text Then a birthday gift of a Pennsylvania stream map changed the authors canoe plans to give them some direction and a goal to complete all of the canoeable waterways in the state was formed At first the aim to do all of the creeks was not too seriously taken but as the blue lines on the map were filled in this indicated that it could be achieved The pursuit of a lot of little creeks and unrecorded ones finally led to completion of the goal over thirty three years of paddling The struggle to complete the most difficult creek was a high point in the game and a ten yard escape from going over a thirty foot waterfall was an event the author would never forget The adventures of the course taken on tide waters in swamps through industrial zones of hazards encountered wildlife and severe weather conditions are spread throughout the writing Memories of the twenty two canoes and kayaks used and of the large ships that his canoe had been up close to on the Delaware River and Lake Erie are mentioned for the record The voyagers who traveled with the author on unknown creeks and on week long river journeys brought life to the activities of the day Some of the many interesting people met along the highway of water are included in the writings In the end the author reviews some of the good and bad practices of canoe sport with the hopes of improving establishment thinking throughout the canoe kayak fraternity William V McNaul

By Canoe and Dog-Train Egerton Ryerson Young, 2021-11-09 In By Canoe and Dog Train Egerton Ryerson Young presents a vivid account of his travels through the Canadian wilderness intricately weaving together themes of exploration survival and indigenous cultures Written in a captivating narrative style that reflects the spirit of late 19th century adventure literature Young s prose is both immersive and lyrical The book not only details the challenges faced by Young and his companions but also offers profound insights into the relationships between settlers and indigenous peoples inviting readers to consider the complexities of a changing landscape marked by both beauty and hardship Egerton Ryerson Young was a Methodist minister and missionary whose experiences in the Canadian north profoundly influenced his worldview Young s commitment to understanding and documenting the lives of indigenous people stemmed from his desire to bridge cultural gaps and promote mutual respect His deep appreciation for the natural world and the philosophy of empathy and coexistence come through in his eloquent descriptions of the landscapes and encounters throughout his journeys which reflect both admiration and a longing for greater understanding This book is highly recommended for readers interested in exploration history and cultural interactions in Canada Young s vivid storytelling coupled with his heartfelt reflections not only offers a compelling adventure narrative but also serves as a thoughtful meditation on the human experience in the face of nature and cultural diversity making it a valuable addition to the literature of travel and cultural history     By Canoe and Dog Train Among The Cree and Salteaux Indians Egerton Ryerson Young, 2019-12-10 In By Canoe and Dog Train Among The Cree and Salteaux Indians Egerton Ryerson Young presents an evocative narrative that seeks to bridge cultural divides while chronicling his experiences among the Indigenous peoples of Canada Written in a detailed and accessible style this work combines elements of travelogue and ethnography providing readers with vivid descriptions of the landscapes and societies encountered The book delves into the lives of the Cree and Salteaux offering insight into their customs traditions and the impact of European encroachment during the late 19th century making it a valuable document in both literary and historical contexts Egerton Ryerson Young was a Methodist missionary and a prominent figure in the establishment of Indigenous education in Canada His experiences as a missionary placed him at the intersection of two worlds allowing him to articulate the complexities and nuances of Indigenous life in a rapidly changing environment Young's sincere engagement with the Cree and Salteaux peoples illustrates his commitment to understanding their plight shaped by the cultural and social dynamics of his time This book is highly recommended for readers who seek to explore the rich tapestry of Indigenous cultures through the lens of a compassionate observer Young's heartfelt narrative not only serves as an enduring testament to the resilience of the Cree and Salteaux but also offers essential reflections on cross cultural interactions that remain relevant today In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read     By Canoe and Dog-train Among the Cree and Salteaux Indians Egerton Ryerson Young, 1890     By Canoe and Dog-train Among the Cree and Salteaux Indians Egerton Ryerson Young, 1891     Crossing the Driftless Lynne Diebel, 2015-03-24 Both a traveler's tale of a 359 mile canoe trip and an exploration of the dramatic environment of the Upper Midwest's Driftless region following the streams of geologic and human history     By Canoe and Dog-Train Egerton Ryerson Young, 2017-05-24 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant     Paddling Northern Wisconsin Mike Svob, 2006     By Canoe and Dog-train Among the Cree and Salteaux Indians Egerton Ryerson Young, 1900     By Canoe and Dog-Train Egerton Ryerson Young, 2015-07-16 Excerpt from By Canoe and Dog Train Among the Cree and Salteaux Indians I felt that he could do for us a work that needed to be done and that few could do in renewing the popular interest in foreign missionary enterprise I had hoped that the Missionary Society might have utilised him for deputation work and have sent him through the country on this errand This hope however has not been fulfilled But not the less service has been rendered by Mr And Mrs Young as they have gone from place to place interesting and thrilling tens of thousands by the records of their great success and of God s blessing amongst the Indians About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Paddling Iowa Nate Hoogeveen,2006-07 Newly revised guide to the best paddling trips in Iowa contains trip ideas and environmental geological and historic points of interest Portage Into the Past J.
