Craftsman Homes Gustav Stickley,1909 CRAFTSMAN HOMES GUSTAV. STICKLEY,2018 Craftsman Homes Gustav Stickley,1979 Craftsman Homes Gustav Stickley,2017-10-14 Excerpt from Craftsman Homes Architecture and Furnishings of the American Arts and Crafts Movement S A nation we do not easily submit to coercion We want a hand in the government national or local We are pretty direct if we do not like a senator or a governor and express our Opinion fully of our ministers and college presidents In more intimate matters of courtship and marriage we regard ourselves as more independent than any other nation We marry usually whom we please and live where we please and work as we please but when it comes to that most vital matter building a home individuality and independence seem to vanish and we are browbeaten alike by architect builder contractor interior decorator picture dealer and furniture man We live in any old house that anyone else has discarded and we submit to all manner of tyrannies as to the size style and finish of our houses impertinences that we would not permit in any other detail of life We not only imitate foreign ideals in our architecture but we have become artificial and unreal in all the detail of the finish and fittings of our homes How many of us would dare to rise up and assert sufficient individuality to plan and build a house that exactly suited our personal ideal of comfort and beauty and represented our station in life And to what extent can we hope for finer ideals in a country that is afraid to be sincere in that most significant feature of national achievement the home We are a country of self supporting men and women and we cannot expect to develop an honest significant architecture until we build homes that are simple yet beautiful that proclaim fine democratic standards and that are essentially appropriate to busy intelligent people That this same state of affairs prevails somewhat in other lands though nowhere to the same extent as in America we realize from the writing of two well known English architects Barry Parker and Raymond Unwin who in a series of lectures published under the title of The Art of Building a Home have entered a plea for greater honesty in architecture and greater sincerity in decoration which ought to strike a responsive chord in the heart of every American who has contemplated the foolish unthinking artificial structures which we have vainly called homes About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works More Craftsman Homes Gustav Stickley,1912 Craftsman Houses Gustav Stickley,2012-03-15 Gustav Stickley pioneered a form of architecture based on beauty simplicity utility and organic harmony This inexpensive reprint of a very rare catalog testifies to the enduring charm of his designs It comprises numerous architectural drawings and photographs of Mission style homes including floor plans and descriptive text Planned for comfort convenience and economy each of these homes features a simple arrangement of rooms and sturdy structural features Combining good taste with practicality they offer openness for common household life as well as sufficient seclusion for privacy Models range from a two family house of cement or stucco to a nine room cottage of brick and shingles and a seven room country bungalow Restorers of old houses preservationists and students of American architectural history will prize this well illustrated treasury of authentic plans and details Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott,2004 For more information including the introduction a full list of entries and contributors a generous selection of sample pages and more visit the Encyclope dia of 20th Century Architecture website Focusing on architecture from all regions of the world this three volume set profiles the twentieth century s vast chronicle of architectural achievements both within and well beyond the theoretical confines of modernism Unlike existing works this encyclopedia examines the complexities of rapidly changing global conditions that have dispersed modern architectural types movements styles and building practices across traditional geographic and cultural boundaries Historic Building Interiors Anne Grimmer,1994 Because the subject for historic building interiors is so diverse this annotated bibliography is not comprehensive but selective in nature and thus may not list all of the references published on a specific topic Includes those publications that are generally available in print or readily accessible in libraries Covers general and historical studies conservation and maintenance paint plaster metals textiles wallcoverings floors and floor coverings and wood Also includes systems and fixtures rehabilitation case studies inspection evaluation and planning and safety fire protection building codes and accessibility Historic Building Interiors ,1994 Stickley Style David M. Cathers,1999-10-05 An Archetype Press book Gustav Stickley's Craftsman Homes and Bungalows Gustav Stickley,2009-03 Designs plans and illustrations from the leader of the Arts and Crafts movement in A History of Interior Design John F. Pile,2005 Delivers the inside story on 6 000 years of personal and public space John Pile acknowledges that interior design is a field with unclear boundaries in which construction architecture the arts and crafts technology and product design all overlap Furniture of the American Arts and Crafts Movement David M.
