Cinema in the Cold War Cyril Buffet,2017-10-02 The film industry was an important propaganda element during the Cold War As with other conflicts the Cold War was fought not just with weapons but with words and images Throughout the conflict cinema was a reflection of the societies the ideologies and the political climates in which the films were produced On both sides great stars major companies famous scriptwriters and filmmakers were enlisted to help the propaganda effort It was not only propaganda that was created by the cinema of the Cold War it also articulated criticism and the movie industries were centres of the fabrication of modern myths The cinema was undoubtedly a place of Cold War confrontation and rivalry and yet there were aesthetic technical narrative exchanges between West and East All genres of film contributed to the Cold War thrillers westerns comedies musicals espionage films documentaries cartoons science fiction historical dramas war films and many more These films shaped popular culture and national identities creating vivid characters like James Bond Alec Leamas Harry Palmer and Rambo While the United States and the Soviet Union were the two main protagonists in this on screen duel other countries such as Britain Germany Poland Italy and Czechoslovakia also played crucially important parts and their prominent cinematographic contributions to the Cold War are all covered in this volume This book was originally published as a special issue of Cold War History

Politics, Policy and Power in Translation History Lieven D'hulst,Carol O'Sullivan,Michael Schreiber,2016-09-09 The contributions in this book are partly based on papers given at the 7th congress of the European Society for Translation Studies held at the University of Mainz in Gernersheim For this publication all papers have undergone a review process In order to illustrate the variety of contents and approaches involved in the concepts of translation policy and politics the chapters are organised thematically rather than chronologically The objective in doing so was to show how policies influence a wide array of discursive practices The first group of articles is concerned with the policy of translating and interpreting in power settings A second group deals with translation policies as applied to a wide corpus of literary texts A third group is devoted to the policies of media translation

Soviet Americana Sergei Zhuk, 2018-01-08 The Americanist community played a vital role in the Cold War as well as in large part directing the cultural consumption of Soviet society and shaping perceptions of the US To shed light onto this important yet under studied academic community Sergei Zhuk here explores the personal histories of prominent Soviet Americanists considering the myriad cultural influences from John Wayne s bravado in the film Stagecoach to Miles Davis that shaped their identities careers and academic interests Zhuk s compelling account draws on a wide range of understudied archival documents periodicals letters and diaries as well as more than 100 exclusive interviews with prominent Americanists to take the reader from the post war origins of American studies via the extremes of the Cold War thaw and perestroika to Putin s Russia Soviet Americana is a comprehensive insight into shifting attitudes towards the US throughout the twentieth century and an essential resource for all Soviet and Cold War historians Slavic Review, 2004
