The Crazy Mirror: Hollywood Comedy and the American Image Raymond Durnat, 1970 Crazy mirror (the); Hollywood comedy and the American image R. Durnat, 1972 The Palgrave Handbook of Music in Comedy Cinema Emilio Audissino, Emile Wennekes, 2023-10-24 This handbook tackles the understudied relationship between music and comedy cinema by analysing the nature perception and function of music from fresh perspectives Its approach is not only multidisciplinary but also interdisciplinary in its close examination of how music and other cinematic devices interact in the creation of comedy The volume addresses gender representation national identities stylistic strategies and employs inputs from cultural studies musicology music theory psychology cognitivism semiotics formal and stylistic film analysis and psychoanalysis It is organised in four sections general introductions theoretical investigations music and comedy within national cinemas and exemplary case studies of films or authors Images of Idiocy Martin Halliwell, 2017-03-02 This book traces the concept of idiocy as it has developed in fiction and film in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries It focuses particularly on visual images of idiocy and argues that writers as diverse as Gustave Flaubert Fyodor Dostoevsky Joseph Conrad John Steinbeck Flannery O Connor and Rohinton Mistry and filmmakers such as Jean Renoir Akira Kurosawa Alfred Hitchcock Werner Herzog and John Huston have all been attracted to idiot figures as a way of thinking through issues of language acquisition intelligence creativity disability religion and social identity Martin Halliwell provides a lively and detailed discussion of the most significant literary and cinematic uses of idiocy arguing that scientific conceptions of the term as a classifiable medical condition are much too narrow With the explosion of interest in idiocy among American and European filmmakers in the 1990s and the growing interest in its often overlooked history this book offers a timely reassessment of idiocy and its distinctive place at the intersection of science and culture Focus On: 100 Most Popular Vaudeville Performers Wikipedia contributors, Groucho Stefan Kanfer, 2001-05-08 This definitive biography of one of the world s greatest comedians unflinchingly yet affectionately uncovers the man behind the cigar Here is the amazing career of the man the world recognized as Groucho the improbable disasters of the vaudeville years the Marx Brothers an act so funny W C Fields refused to follow it the unprecedented Broadway success of The Cocoanuts and Animal Crackers the cinematic triumphs of Duck Soup and A Night at the Opera and the marvelous come back career as king of the game show hosts with You Bet Your Life Here too is the man himself a lonely middle child who aspired to be a doctor a man who sabotaged three marriages a father alternately indulgent and cruel Intelligent and thorough hilarious and sad Groucho is a spectacular biography of the century s most influential comedian Continuum Guide to Media Education Pat Brereton, 2005-09-14 This is a unique comprehensive and authoritative guide to media education in all its aspects the key concepts resources research findings movements issues debates educators and organizations that characterize the subject Presented in an easy to use A Z format the entries constitute an invaluable one stop resource for media educators and

World War II and the Postwar Years in America William H. Young, Nancy K. Young, 2010-09-17 More than 150 articles provide a revealing look at one of the most tempestuous decades in recent American history describing the everyday activities of Americans as they dealt first with war and then a difficult transition to peace and prosperity The two volume World War II and the Postwar Years in America A Historical and Cultural Encyclopedia contains over 175 articles describing everyday life on the American home front during World War II and the immediate postwar years Unlike publications about this period that focus mainly on the big picture of the war and subsequent economic conditions this encyclopedia drills down to the popular culture of the 1940s bringing the details of the lives of ordinary men women and children alive The work covers a broad range of everyday activities throughout the 1940s including movies radio programming music the birth of commercial television advertising art bestsellers and other equally intriguing topics The decade was divided almost evenly between war 1940 1945 and peace 1946 1950 and the articles point up the continuities and differences between these two periods Filled with evocative photographs this unique encyclopedia will serve as an excellent resource for those seeking an overview of life in the United States during a decade that helped shape the modern world

Master Space Barbara Bowman, 1992-05-12 This is a unique study of the use of cinematic space by four important directors in American cinema from the 1930s to the 1960s Frank Capra Ernst Lubitsch Josef von Sternberg and William Wyler Barbara Bowman examines each of their distinctive styles and diverse backgrounds and shows how these unique visual styles complement each other representing the best in classic American cinema from Ninotchka and Shanghai Express to Best Years of Our Lives to It's a Wonderful Life These great directors viewed space not as simple emptiness nor as something to be manipulated pragmatically but as a frame or palette in which to work Their arrangements of cinematic space become not just visually recurrent techniques but aesthetic touchstones that alert spectators to the narrative shape of the film and invite the spectator to have a more self conscious relation to the film Bowman explains how Capra's challenge was to take what is spatially familiar like James Stewart's or Gary Cooper's neighborhood or small town and defamiliarize it enough so that we see it for the first time Lubitsch's creation of film space relies on the indirection so apparent in his scripts by Samuel Raphaelson he depends on what the spectator cannot yet see or only anticipates relying upon our imaginations especially our potential lasciviousness Sternberg's veiled shots of Marlene Dietrich and others convey a very basic skepticism about human capacity for both sight and insight and Wyler emotionalizes his films's space by having characters like Bette Davis confront each other in triangular groups or by double framing his figures with architectural second frames Each director approached film space with his own singular style but all four techniques shared a common purpose to explain characters or to teach the spectator to see more intensely

A Century of the Marx Brothers Joseph Mills, 2007 In 1905 Julius Marx began his vaudeville career with the singing group The Leroy Trio and was abandoned in the middle of the tour It was an inauspicious start for the person who would become Groucho A hundred years later the Marx Brothers have permeated our culture from the plastic noses and glasses worn at parties to a Smithsonian exhibition which explains DNA recombination using A Night at the Opera Although they completed relatively few films together the brothers have become icons recognizable even to people who have never seen their movies Most scholarly work on the Marx Brothers has focused on biographical aspects of their careers and lives A Century of the Marx Brothers suggests a myriad of other useful approaches to their film and stage productions The collection s eleven essays examine the Marx Brothers work from a number of critical perspectives ranging from reader response theory to film semiotics The contributors include international scholars in a variety of fields such as literature cultural studies performance studies and film history
