International Developments in Assuring Quality in Higher Education Alma Craft, 2018-10-10 Originally published in 1994 International Developments in Assuring Quality in Higher Education describes a range of national and international developments which evaluate the quality of education provided by public and private tertiary institutions The book is based on papers from a conference organized by the International Network of Quality Assurance Agencies in Higher Education and held in Montreal in 1993 Regional perspectives from Africa Asia and the Pacific Latin America North America and Western Europe are followed by an account of national quality assurance agencies in Chile Denmark Korea New Zealand South Africa Quebec Romania Scotland and the USA There are also chapters on the work of UNESCO and the World Bank in promoting quality in higher education in industrialising nations Together these papers supplement the account of international initiatives

Toward Quality Assurance and Excellence in Higher Education Ahmed Odeh Al Jaber, 2022-09-01 Quality Assurance is not a new concept in the education sector in general and higher education in particular though it is becoming increasingly more relevant and important Higher education helps to improve an individual s quality of life by enabling them to inflate their knowledge and expertise to grasp abstract concepts and theories and to raise their awareness of the world and their community and as such the assurance of quality is becoming more pivotal in the whole education process There is no simple definition of the concept of quality in education though numerous models and theories have been devised Toward Quality Assurance and Excellence of Higher Education is a new episode of the Quality Assurance perception in higher education which identifies the quality culture and orientation from the beginning integrating crucial factors to build a pyramid of higher education excellence The book compares concepts from the main theories of Quality Assurance management and control when they are applied to educational systems in higher education The book also presents a new model of excellence in higher education Excellence is an architecture of building blocks that comes with process performance effectiveness harmony and collaboration which should be incorporated in a quality oriented concept of a sustainable excellence of higher education The model integrates four main facets the Educational System Quality Assurance Managing and Control Strategic Planning and Globalization Also presented are international best practices in quality assurance in higher education from Japan and Finland

Assuring Quality Out-patient Care for Children Charles Davenport Cook, Jane Heidt, 1988 This book describes a quality assurance system for high volume pediatric outpatient departments It is based on the Pediatric Protocol Project which the authors developed and implemented in King s County Hospital in Brooklyn in late 1981 and which has since been installed in five other large hospitals in New York City The management system is designed to be built into the very process of delivering health care providing guidelines for diagnosis case management and record keeping This volume describes these elements of the system and others such as the parent education materials developed to support the standard guidelines The result of input from a large number of pediatricians and a careful review of the medical literature the book can serve as a manual for anyone who would like to implement the system It also places the system squarely in the context of major health issues such as quality assurance cost effectiveness and health care administration It will be of interest to hospital administrators health care systems analysts government health agencies and pediatricians and family practitioners
