Creating Christian Community:

Creating Christian Communities Richard R. Diefenderfer, 2003 Creating Church Online Tim Hutchings, 2017-04-21

Online churches are internet based Christian communities pursuing worship discussion friendship support proselytization and other key religious goals through computer mediated communication Hundreds of thousands of people are now involved with online congregations generating new kinds of ritual leadership and community and new networks of global influence Creating Church Online constructs a rich ethnographic account of the diverse cultures of online churches from virtual worlds to video streams This book also outlines the history of online churchgoing from its origins in the 1980s to the present day and traces the major themes of academic and Christian debate around this topic Applying some of the leading current theories in the study of religion media and culture to this data Tim Hutchings proposes a new model of religious design in contexts of mediatization and draws attention to digital networks transformative third spaces and terrains of existential vulnerability Creating Church Online advances our understanding of the significance and impact of digital media in the religious and social lives of its users in search of new theoretical frameworks for digital religion Creating Christian Community

Thomas G. Ogilvie, 2006 Creating Community, Revised & Updated Edition Andy Stanley, Bill Willits, 2009-03-25 Five keys to building a small group culture that fosters meaningful lasting connections within your church community Small groups are the key to impacting lives in your church But a healthy small group environment doesn't just happen So pull up a chair Let's talk about how to make it happen Bill Willits and bestselling author Andy Stanley share their successful approach which has resulted in nearly eight thousand adults becoming involved in small groups at North Point Community Church in Atlanta Simply put the five principles have passed the test This is not just another book about community this is a book about strategy strategy that builds a small group culture Creating Community shares clear and simple principles to help people connect into meaningful relationships The kind that God desires for each of us and that He uses to change our lives Put this proven method to work in your ministry and enjoy the tangible results God's people doing life TOGETHER The small group program at North Point Community Church is not an appendage it is not a program we tacked on to an existing structure It is part of our lifestyle We think groups We organize groups We are driven by groups Creating Community contains our blueprint for success And I believe it has the potential power to revolutionize your own small group ministry Andy Stanley

Christian Community in History Volume 2 Roger D. Haight, 2005-03-17 Ecclesiology from below as it operates in this work is directed to history it moves through the actual church of history to ecclesiology or to an understanding of the church both as it is and as it should be In the first volume that passage was fairly explicit because comprehensive ecclesiologies in our sense did not exist In this volume ecclesiology itself becomes much more directly the subject matter of the book but without losing sight of concrete history and the degree to which these ecclesiologies are historically conditioned Put somewhat differently the main goal of this comparative ecclesiology is not simply to lay down one after another different ecclesiologies that emerged over the last five hundred years although that describes the book with empirical accuracy Its larger intent is to show the richness vitality and creativity of the whole church as it moves through history adjusting to new times places and cultures

India and the Indianness of Christianity Robert Eric Frykenberg, Richard Fox Young, 2009 Honoring historian Robert Eric Frykenberg arguably the historian most responsible for promoting studies of intercultural and interreligious interactions in the South Asian context the essays in this collection avoid the pitfall of Eurocentric top down historiographies and instead adopt and adapt Frykenberg's own Eurocentric bottom up approach this accentuating indigenous agency in the emergence of Christianity as an Indian religion The book features first time case studies on Christianity in a variety of unusual Indian settings including tribal societies and offers original contributions to an understanding of how Indian Christianity was perceived in the post Independence period by India's governing elite Several essayists draw heavily on rare archival documentation in the United Kingdom Germany and India The wealth of material and the perspectives gathered here constitute a remarkable volume a credit to the historian who inspired it from back cover

The Routledge Companion to the Christian Church Gerard Mannion, Lewis S. Mudge, 2007-12-12 Written by an international team of distinguished scholars this comprehensive book introduces students to the fundamental historical systematic moral and ecclesiological aspects of the study of the church as well as serving as a resource for scholars engaging in ecclesiological debates on a wide variety of issues Creative Ways to Build Christian Community Jeanne C. DeFazio, John P. Lathrop, 2013-04-10 Creative Ways to Build Christian Community is exactly what its title says it is a very personal practical response to the present and future prospect of isolation a treasure trove of examples and suggestions about how to accomplish the Great Commission from community builders telling how over the years and the ministries they have implemented creative ways to build up churches and organizations to develop more intensive Christian fellowship and thereby create community Dr William David Spencer The Nature and Purpose of a Christian Society Terrot Reaveley Glover, 1912 Creating Christian Community Samuel Moor Shoemaker, 1952 Making Neighborhoods Whole Wayne Gordon, John M. Perkins, 2013-11-22 Already with decades of experience speaking prophetically into the charged racial climate of the American south John Perkins began to see a need for organized thinking and collaborative imagination about how the church engages urban ministry And so the Christian Community Development Association CCDA was born with Wayne Gordon an immediate and enthusiastic participant Nearly thirty years later CCDA's eight key components of community development still set the bar for how churches parachurches and nonprofits engage cities with the whole gospel Relocation Reconciliation Redistribution Leadership Development Listening to the Community Church Based Development A Wholistic Approach to Ministry Empowerment In Making Neighborhoods Whole Perkins and Gordon revisit these eight commitments and how they've played out in real communities even as they scan the horizon of urban ministry to set a new tone With profiles of longstanding and emerging community development ministries they guide a new conversation and empower disciples of Jesus to seek the welfare of their cities to the glory of God Lectures on the Church and the Sacraments Peter Taylor Forsyth, 1917 Creating Community David Prior, 1992 Without true community even the most impressive local church has little more to offer than an endless cycle of meetings If leaders feel they must be flawless or members find their personal needs and uniquenesses glossed over the church will never become a place where hearts are touched and lives are changed Drawn from over 25 years of experience this book contains principles and suggestions that have repeatedly proven successful in creating community Christian Community in History Roger Haight, 2004 The Church as Christian Community James P. Alter, 1966
